Speaking Stones Shaul Mishal,Reuben Aharoni,1993-09-01 The Intifada inspired a new kind of Palestinian radicalism a radicalism borne on young shoulders a radicalism that conducts its dialogue with Israel and the local population via the stone the slingshot the petro bomb and the leaflet The leaflets bring the people into the streets and instruct them what to do and when and how They determine the boundaries of the permissible If one wants to know why the Intifada erupted what the Palestinians think and what they are fighting for how they operate and how they perceive Israel and whether there is anything to talk about one should read the Palestinian leaflets They are the documents from which the Palestinians go forth and to which they return Mishal and Aharoni first provide some historical background to the Intifada and deal with the question of how it came about and what prevented its outbreak during the first twenty years of Israeli rule in the territories They then turn to the leaflets and examine in detail their contents and motivations Speaking Stones concludes with a selection of over fifty translated leaflets of the two leading bodies in the Intifada the United National Command and the Islamic Resistance Movement known as Hamas

Whether used in conjunction with its sister volume or on its own, this book provides the most comprehensive and detailed overview of the region's varied politics. Five new experts cover the critical country cases of Turkey, Lebanon, Jordan, Saudi Arabia, and Iran. As such, this textbook is invaluable to students of Middle Eastern politics. The ninth edition brings substantial changes. All chapters also have a uniform streamlined structure that explores the historical context, social and economic environment, political institutions, regime dynamics, and foreign policy of each country. Annotated bibliographies are vastly expanded, providing nothing short of the best list of research references for each country.

Women and Politics in the Third World Haleh Afshar, 2005-07-26

Women and Politics in the Third World is the first comprehensive textbook on women's political activities in the third world. It provides a feminist analytical perspective on the specific forms of resistance, organisation, and negotiation by women in third world states. Using case studies, the book focuses on difference as a theoretical basis for investigating feminine political activism. Though Western analysts have attributed weakness to terms such as motherhood, marriage, and domesticity as choices made by non-Western women, the contributors show that such strategies are used by women to pursue particular goals, such as seeking resources, welfare, or freedom from oppression for their children. These strategies, the book suggests, should not be classified as unimportant or temporary and can be highly effective even within such discourses as Islamic fundamentalism. The contributors highlight differing political approaches in regions as diverse as Latin America, South East Asia, China, and the Middle East.

The Women and War Reader Lois Ann Lorentzen, Jennifer E. Turpin, 1998-07

Women play many roles during wartime. This compelling study brings together the work of foremost scholars on women and war to address questions of ethnicity, women and the war complex, peacemaking, motherhood, and more. It leaves behind outdated arguments about militarist men and pacifist women while still recognizing differences in men's and women's relationships to war.

Soul Breathing Carrie L'Esperance, 2016-05-17

An exploration of the multidimensional interplay between body, mind, and spirit. Identifies the frequencies that support life and the dissonant frequencies incompatible with life, such as the imbalances of EMFs. Explains how to cultivate higher consciousness by building a strong light body. Includes techniques and exercises for psychic cleansing, physical and emotional detox, chakra and aura strengthening, and oracular dreaming. Civilization has reached a critical threshold in time, unlike any other. Whether life continues to evolve or devolve depends upon our ability to reach higher states of consciousness en masse. This requires calling upon the transformative power of the soul, a power not handed to us but earned. We are living proof that the physical and spiritual realms of existence work together in unity. Yet for many of us, our natural soul light and inner spiritual intuition are suppressed due to the distractions of day to day living and the electromagnetic pollution of our screen filled technological world In this exploration of the multidimensional interplay between the body mind and spirit Carrie L Esperance reveals how we can restore the flow of spiritual light in everyday living through the art of self mastery She explains how technology has severely reduced humanity's natural abilities and spiritual power She shows how EMFs and wi fi toast our energetic bodily systems and suppress our immune systems blocking the ethereal frequencies of light and suppressing our creative intuition and higher powers Detailing the spiritual bio geometry of light and the holographic principle she explores how the cells of our bodies receive light's deeper vibratory frequencies to support conscious evolution and soul development as well as explaining near death and out of body experiences She identifies the dissonant energies that endanger mind body health and reveals new advances in brain science that allow us to transcend the malign influences that hamper human evolution She provides exercises and techniques for spiritual alignment and receptivity including psychic cleansing physical and emotional detox chakra and aura strengthening and oracular dreaming Preparing us for the new cosmology and the greater community of worlds that is being revealed L Esperance shows that when we are properly connected with our soul's intelligence and cultivate the reception of higher frequencies of consciousness then we are able to soul breathe to absorb more pranic energy the electromagnetic force and cosmic radiation that is the sustaining element of all life and consciousness The Utne Reader, 1992 Radical Religion and Violence Jeffrey Kaplan, 2015-11-19 Jeffrey Kaplan has been one of the most influential scholars of new religious movements extremism and terrorism His pioneering use of interpretive fieldwork among radical and violent subcultures opened up new fields of scholarship and vastly increased our understanding of the beliefs and activities of extremists This collection features many of his seminal contributions to the field alongside several new pieces which place his work within the context of the latest research developments Combining discussion of the methodological issues alongside a broad array of case studies this will be essential reading for all students and scholars of extremism religion and politics and terrorism
