response to the war on terror and the evidentiary law of spousal privilege The second half of the book explores legal literary and filmic representations of secrets in law focusing on how knowledge about particular cases and crimes is often rendered opaque to those attempting to access and decode the information Those invested in transparency must ultimately cultivate a capacity to read between the lines decode the illegible and acknowledge both the virtues and dangers of the unknowable

The CIA on Campus Philip Zwerling, 2011-09-05 Former CIA Personnel Director F W M Janney once wrote It is absolutely essential that the Agency have available to it the greatest single source of expertise the American academic community To this end the Central Intelligence Agency has poured tens of millions of dollars into universities to influence research and enlist students and faculty members into its ranks This collection of nine essays from diverse academic fields explores the pernicious penetration of intelligence services into U S campus life to exploit academic study recruit students skew publications influence professional advancement misinform the public and spy on professors With its exhaustive list of CIA misdeeds and myriad suggestions for combatting the subversion of academic independence this work provides a wake up call for students and faculty across the country

Trading Secrets Mark Huband, 2012-12-14 Today s intelligence community faces challenges that would have been inconceivable only a dozen years ago Just as al Qaeda s destruction of the Twin Towers heralded a revolution in global diplomacy the events of 9 11 also threw two centuries of spy craft into turmoil because this new enemy could not be bought Gone were the sleepers and moles whose trade in secrets had sustained intelligence agencies in both peacetime and war A new method of intelligence had been born The award winning former Financial Times security correspondent Mark Huband here takes us deep inside this new unseen world of spies and intelligence With privileged access to intelligence officers from Rome to Kabul and from Khartoum to Guantanamo Bay he reveals how spies created secret channels to the IRA deceived Iran s terrorist allies frequently attempted to infiltrate al Qaeda and forced Libya to abandon its nuclear weapons Using accounts from ex KGB officers Huband vividly describes the devastation caused by the West s misreading of Soviet intentions in Africa and explains how ill prepared western intelligence agencies were when the Cold War was replaced by the perception of a new terrorist threat Benefiting from privileged access to intelligence sources across the world Trading Secrets provides a unique and controversial assessment of the catastrophic failure of spies to grasp the realities of the Taliban s grip on Afghanistan and draws upon exclusive interviews with serving officers in assessing the ability of the major intelligence agencies to combat the threat of twenty first century terrorism

exposes how and why our most important institutions increasingly keep secrets from the very people they are supposed to serve Drawing on his decades as an investigative reporter Ted Gup argues that a preoccupation with secrets has undermined the very values security patriotism and privacy in whose name secrecy is so often invoked He explores the blatant exploitation of privacy and confidentiality in academia business and the courts and concludes that in case after case these principles have been twisted to allow the emergence of a shadow system of justice unaccountable to the public Nation of Secrets not only sounds the alarm to warn against an unethical way of life but calls for the preservation of our democracy as we know it
