Seduction And Theory Readings Of Gender Representation And Rhetoric:

Seduction and Theory Dianne Hunter, 1989
Sexton Anne Dietrich Marlene Freud Lacan Sappho's Sweetbitter
Songs Lyn Hatherly Wilson, 2013-07-04 This study recreates and examines a voice that sings of the dreams and interactions of women and tells of the bodies rhythms and desires of the women of Sappho's circle
French Women Writers Eva Martin Sartori, Dorothy Wynne Zimmerman, 1994-01-01 Marie de France Mme De S vign and Mme De Lafayette achieved international reputations during periods when women in other European countries were able to write only letters translations religious tracts and miscellaneous fragments There were obstacles but French women writers were more or less sustained and empowered by the French culture Often unconventional in their personal lives and occupied with careers besides writing as educators painters actresses preachers salon hostesses labor organizers these women did not wait for Simone de Beauvoir to tell them to make existential choices and have projects in the world French Women Writers describes the lives and careers of fifty two literary figures from the twelfth century to the late twentieth All the contributors are recognized authorities Some of their subjects like Colette and George Sand are celebrated and others are just now gaining critical notice From Christine de Pizan and Marguerite de Navarre to Rachilde and H l _ne Cixous from Louise Labe to Marguerite Duras these women speak through the centuries to issues of gender sexuality and language French Women Writers now becomes widely available in this Bison Book edition

Questions of Travel Caren Kaplan, 1996-08-21 On travel in literature
Moveable Margins Kathleen Mary Glenn, Mirella D'Ambrosio Servodidio, Mary Seale Vásquez, 1999 The second section contains ten critical essays that apply widely varying critical approaches that range from feminist psychoanalytical formalist poststructuralist new historical and intertextual to postmodern and postcolonial The volume also features Riera's hitherto unpublished play in the Catalan original and in English translation This book will appeal to those interested in twentieth century Peninsular literature comparative literature feminist criticism gender studies and cultural studies
Maternal Pasts, Feminist Futures Lynne Huffer, 1998 This book examines the relations among nostalgia gender and foundational philosophies through a critique of the lost mother as a ground for thinking about sexual difference More specifically the author critiques the nostalgic tendencies of feminist theory arguing that an emancipatory system of thought must move beyond a maternally oriented structure Through close readings of works by Maurice Blanchot Luce Irigaray Julia Kristeva and Nicole Brossard the book elucidates the many dimensions of nostalgic paradigms literary psychoanalytic epistemological ontological and sociopolitical This critique ultimately confronts postmodernism and especially the burgeoning field of performative theory as an intellectual paradigm that claims to subvert systems of meaning Analyzing the writings of J L Austin Judith Butler and Irigaray the author argues that despite its antinostalgic structure performative theory provides an inadequate model for understanding the connections among language identity and the social bonds that constitute the ethical and political sphere Asserting through the example of performative theory that a critique is not enough the book examines the possibility of a constructive model that is both non nostalgic and informed by ethical constraints One such model is offered through a reading of the Quebecois writer Nicole Brossard which explores her work in relation to the question of lesbian writing Demystifying nostalgia Brossard not only uncovers and subverts the structures through which a concept of origins is produced but also provides a different visionary way of thinking about the relationship between subjectivity and language Finally the book argues for further feminist work on the relationship between narrative and ethics a field whose future lies in the elaboration of a bridge between the moral commitments of ethical theory and the fractured realities that find their expression in literary forms Fieldwork Under Fire Carolyn Nordstrom, Antonius C. G. M.

Robben, 1995 Required reading for anyone about to leave for the field A timely deserving and original contribution to a rapidly growing body of literature on the study of violence Jean Paul Dumont George Mason University The Unmaking of Fascist Aesthetics Kriss Ravetto, 2001 In works by filmmakers from Bertolucci to Spielberg debauched images of nazi and fascist eroticism symbols of violence and immorality often bear an uncanny resemblance to the images and symbols once used by the fascists themselves to demarcate racial sexual and political others This book exposes the madness inherent in such a course which attests to the impossibility of disengaging visual and rhetorical constructions from political ideological and moral codes Kriss Ravetto argues that contemporary discourses using such devices actually continue unacknowledged rhetorical moral and visual analogies of the past Against postwar fictional and historical accounts of World War II in which generic images of evil characterize the nazi and the fascist Ravetto sets the more complex approach of such filmmakers as Pier Paolo Pasolini Liliana Cavani and Lina Wertmuller Her book asks us to think deeply about what it means to say that we have conquered fascism when the aesthetics of fascism still describe and determine how we look at political figures and global events Book jacket Heart of Darkness Joseph Conrad, 2011-03 This volume presents the text of the 1921

Heinemann edition of Conrad's classic short novel along with documents that place the work in historical context and critical essays that read Heart of Darkness from several contemporary critical perspectives The text and essays are complemented by biographical and critical introductions bibliographies and a glossary of critical and theoretical terms In this third edition the section of cultural documents and illustrations is entirely new as are two recent exemplary critical essays by Gabrielle McIntire and Tony C Brown that synthesize a variety of current critical approaches
