The Marrakesh One-two Richard Grenier,1983      Muslim Heroes on Screen Daniel O'Brien,2021-11-16 If films drawing on Middle East tropes often highlight white Westerners figures such as Sinbad and the Thief of Bagdad embody a counter tradition of protagonists derived from Islamic folklore and history who are portrayed as Other to Western audiences In Muslim Heroes on Screen Daniel O'Brien explores the depiction of these characters in Euro American cinema from the silent era to the present day Far from being mere racial masquerade these screen portrayals are more complex and nuanced than is generally allowed not least in terms of the shifting concepts and assumptions that inform their Muslim identity Using films ranging from Douglas Fairbanks The Thief of Bagdad The 7th Voyage of Sinbad El Cid Kingdom of Heaven and The Message to The Wind and the Lion O'Brien considers how the representational strategies of Western filmmakers may transcend such Muslim stereotypes as fanatic antagonists or passive victims These figures possess a cultural significance which cannot be fully appreciated by Euro American audiences without reference to their distinction as Muslim heroes and the implications and resonances of an Islamicized protagonist      Marrakesh One-Two Counter Display Richard Grenier,1984-11-06

Spies and Holy Wars Reeva Spector Simon, 2010-11-15

Illuminating a powerful intersection between popular culture and global politics Spies and Holy Wars draws on a sampling of more than eight hundred British and American thrillers that are propelled by the theme of jihad an Islamic holy war or crusade against the West Published over the past century the books in this expansive study encompass spy novels and crime fiction illustrating new connections between these genres and Western imperialism Demonstrating the social implications of the popularity of such books Reeva Spector Simon covers how the Middle Eastern villain evolved from being the malleable victim before World War II to the international techno savvy figure in today's crime novels She explores the impact of James Bond pulp fiction and comic books and also analyzes the ways in which world events shaped the genre particularly in recent years Worldwide terrorism and economic domination prevail as the most common sources of narrative tension in these works while military tech novels restored the prestige of the American hero in the wake of post Vietnam skepticism Moving beyond stereotypes Simon examines the relationships between publishing trends political trends and popular culture at large giving voice to the previously unexamined truths that emerge from these provocative page turners

In the Path of God Daniel Pipes, Americans awareness of Islam and Muslims rose to seemingly unprecedented heights in the immediate aftermath of September 11 2001 but this is not the first time they have dominated American public life Once before during the period of the Iranian revolution and hostage crisis of 1979 to 1981 Americans found themselves targeted as a consequence of a militant interpretation of Islam Daniel Pipes wrote In the Path of God in response to those events and the heightened interest in Islam they generated His objective was to present an overview of the connection between Islam and political power through history in a way that would explain the origins of hostility to Americans and the West Its relevance to our understanding of contemporary events is self evident Muslim antagonism toward the West is deeply rooted in historical experience In premodern times the Islamic world enjoyed great success being on the whole more powerful and wealthier than their neighbors About two hundred years ago a crisis developed as Muslims became aware of the West's overwhelming force and economic might While they might have found these elements attractive Muslims found European culture largely alien and distasteful The resulting resistance to Westernization by Muslims has deep roots has been more persistent than that of other peoples and goes far to explain the deep Muslim reluctance to accept modern ways In short Muslims saw what the West had and wanted it too but they rejected the methods necessary to achieve this This the Muslim trauma has only worsened over the years Scholarly far ranging and thoughtful the debate is interesting and Pipes has made a stimulating contribution to it The New Republic Brilliant authoritative demonstrates encyclopedic knowledge of Muslim intellectual history Few other writers have explained so lucidly such complex developments in Muslim history The Washington Post He has resisted a widespread tendency to translate Muslim self expression into social science jargon as unintelligible as any mosque harangue His unadorned interpretation strikes a judicious balance between faithfulness to sources and clarity of presentation The American Spectator Daniel Pipes is director of the Middle East Forum and a columnist for the New York Post and the Jerusalem Post Among his books are The Long Shadow Culture and Politics in the Middle East published by Transaction Greater Syria The History of an Ambition Friendly Tyrants An American Dilemma and The Rushdie Affair The Novel the Aftermath and the West

A History of the Jews in North Africa, Volume 2 From the Ottoman Conquests to the Present Time Hirschberg,2023-09-20 Tropical Agriculture in Transition – Opportunities for Mitigating Greenhouse Gas Emissions? Reiner Wassmann,Paul L.G. Vlek,2013-04-17 Production from tropical agricultural systems will need to increase to satisfy the rising food demand of an increasing population coupled with changes in consumption patterns At the same time the agricultural sector is a significant source of greenhouse gases GHG in many developing countries which can be attributed mainly to land use change and methane emissions from rice and livestock But how can we reconcile less GHG emissions from tropical agricultural systems while increasing productivity Due to the interactive nature of these issues this book is compiled of articles on natural resource management as well as the socio economic aspects of GHG mitigation The scope of mitigation options in tropical agriculture is discussed for three different activities a agroforestry b rice based production systems c pasture animal husbandry Agronomic solutions alone will not be sufficient as the institutional and economic frameworks within which farmers operate dictate whether a recommended agronomic management practice is acceptable The prevention of deforestation and the re forestation of degraded land could become key elements to national climate protection programs of some developing countries Alternative management practices in rice based and pasture systems may offer win win options to reduce emissions and improve resource use efficiencies
