Africans John Iliffe,2017-07-13 In a vast and all embracing study of Africa from the origins of mankind to the present day John Iliffe refocuses its history on the peopling of an environmentally hostile continent Africans have been pioneers struggling against disease and nature but during the last century their inherited culture has interacted with medical progress to produce the most rapid population growth the world has ever seen This new edition incorporates genetic and linguistic findings throwing light on early African history and summarises research that has transformed the study of the Atlantic slave trade It also examines the consequences of a rapidly growing youthful population the hopeful but uncertain democratisation and economic recovery of the early twenty first century the containment of the AIDS epidemic and the turmoil within Islam that has produced the Arab Spring Africans The History of a Continent is thus a single story binding modern men and women to their earliest human ancestors

African Feminism Gwendolyn Mikell,2010-08-03 African feminism this landmark volume demonstrates differs radically from the Western forms of feminism with which we have become familiar since the 1960s African feminists are not by and large concerned with issues such as female control over reproduction or variation and choice within human sexuality nor with debates about essentialism the female body or the discourse of patriarchy The feminism that is slowly emerging in Africa is distinctly heterosexual pronatal and concerned with bread butter and power issues Contributors present case studies of ten African states demonstrating that as they fight for access to land for the right to own property for control of food distribution for living wages and safe working conditions for health care and for election reform African women are creating a powerful and specifically African feminism African Gender Studies Oyeronke Oyewumi, 2016-09-27 This is the first comprehensive reader that brings African experiences to bear on the ongoing global discussions of women gender and society Bringing together the essential writing on this topic from the last 25 years these essays discuss gender in Africa from a multi disciplinary perspective
