The Culturalization of Caste in India Balmurli Natrajan,2011-07-20 In India caste groups ensure their durability in an era of multiculturalism by officially representing caste as cultural difference or ethnicity rather than as unequal descent based relations Challenging dominant social theories of caste this book addresses questions of how caste survives the system that gave rise to it and adapts to new demands of capitalism and democracy Based on original fieldwork the book shows how the terrain of culture captured by a new grammar of caste revitalizes castes as cultural communities so that the culture of a caste is produced organized and naturalized in the process of transforming jati fetishized blood and kinship into samaj fetishized culture Castes are shown to not be homogenous cultural wholes but sites of hegemony where class gender and hierarchy over determine the meanings and materiality of caste Arguing that there exists a new casteism in India akin to a new racism in the USA built less on biology and descent and more on purported cultural differences and their rights to exist the book presents an extended critique and a search for an alternative view of caste and anti casteist politics It is of interest to students and scholars of South Asian culture and society

Hitchcock as Philosopher of the Erotic Richard Gilmore,2024-06-07 This book reads Alfred Hitchcock as a philosopher of what constitutes the erotic The author argues that Hitchcock is doing a post Nietzschean postmodern kind of philosophy in which he is exploring and creating possibilities of what the erotic can feel like and how the erotic can be expressed The erotic is a pervasive phenomenon in Hitchcock s films It involves irony play and sophistication and there can be erotic failures as well as erotic successes The erotic is most complexly explored by Hitchcock in his two masterpieces from the 1950s Vertigo 1958 a story of the failure of the erotic and North by Northwest 1959 in which the erotic is consummated in marriage The author argues that Hitchcock has a philosophical theory about what makes the difference It is a version of existential philosophy that understands what a person is to be based on what they make of themselves through their choices The author argues that the erotic for Hitchcock is a process of mutual reciprocal creation of the personality of the other person This process is complicated by the fact that as one attempts to create the person one desires one is simultaneously being created by that other person and so what one desires is also in a process of being recreated in the mutual reciprocal dance of the erotic entanglement There is a moral dimension to this because erotic failure is in a way a failure of the human not in the sense of a human essence but in the sense of realizing human possibilities that can make our lives more satisfying complete and full Hitchcock as Philosopher of the Erotic will appeal to scholars and advanced students working on philosophy of film film studies and philosophy of love and sex
