Marshal Of Gunsmoke:

Marshal of Gunsmoke Chester Allen, 1953 The United States Marshals of New Mexico and Arizona Territories, 1846-1912 Larry D. Ball, 1982-02-01 First released in 1978 and still the best account of territorial law enforcement this book presents a thoroughly researched well documented and entertaining history of United States marshals in New Mexico and Arizona during the tumultuous territorial years Included in the story are notable lawmen such as John Pratt John E Sherman and Creighton M Foraker and gunfighters like Billy the Kid Doc Holliday and the Earp Brothers With detailed accounts of many other lesser known lawmen and criminals Ball gives a well rounded history of the mundane as well as the spectacular incidents in the lives of these lawmen during the unstable territorial years Universal Sound Westerns, 1929-1946 Gene Blottner, 2024-10-17 After Fox released In Old Arizona the first feature length western with sound in 1929 Universal president Carl Laemmle decided that Universal s westerns should follow suit Beginning that same year with the release of The Wagon Master starring Ken Maynard up until 1946 when the studio merged with International Pictures Universal Pictures captivated audiences with its sound westerns Individual entries for the approximately 180 feature films and serials released by Universal during that period are presented here Each entry includes the film s title release date alternate title cast credits songs location of filming running time source if the film was an adaptation plot synopsis commentary from the author and from the actors and directors representative excerpts from reviews and a tag line from the original advertising Also provided is a chronological listing of Universal s short western films and a chronological listing of Universal s sound westerns The American Western A Complete Film Guide Terry Rowan, 2012-11-18 A comprehensive film guide featuring films and television shows of the great American western The stories of the men and women who tamed the old West Also featuring actors and directors who made these films possible Truth and Rumors Bill Brioux, 2007-12-30 When you first heard it you couldn t believe it Jerry Mathers from TV s Leave It To Beaver had been killed in Vietnam Then word came that Abe Vigoda the actor who played the curmudgeonly cop Fish on Barney Miller was dead and that Mikey who would eat anything as the Life Cereal tyke had eaten too many Pop Rocks and exploded Besides exposing us to things we couldn t otherwise believe television can convince us of things that never actually happened But how did these outrageous TV legends get started How did they spread from classrooms to boardrooms across North America and beyond And most important what do these rumors so quickly transformed into facts and common knowledge reveal about our relationship to reality through the medium of television Put in other words what exactly is it that were doing when were dealing in these fabulous rumors are we chasing after surprising truths or simply more incredible entertainment To take one telling example Jerry Mathers was not actually killed in Vietnam but the basic sense of this lie wasn t far removed from the emotions factually expressed in the two page spread of the faces of the dead in Time magazine In the course of this compelling work which is supplemented with interviews with many of the people implicated in these rumors author Bill Brioux exposes the reality behind the many stories that currently circulate in our culture Through these stories both true and false he sheds a revealing light on just what role these rumors play in contemporary society and what role our society plays in regard to these rumors as well
