researchers and philosophers this volume presents a richly varied picture of the nature and function of mental states Starting from questions about the cognitive capacities of the early hominin homo floresiensis the essays proceed to the role mental representations play in guiding the behaviour of simple organisms and robots thence to the question of which features of its environment the human brain represents and the extent to which complex cognitive skills such as language acquisition and comprehension are impaired when the brain lacks certain important neural structures Other papers explore topics ranging from nativism to the presumed constancy of categorization across signed and spoken languages from the formal representation of metaphor actions and vague language to philosophical questions about conceptual schemes and colours Anyone interested in mental states will find much to reward them in this fine volume Environmental Archaeology

Evangelia Pişkin,Arkadiusz Marciniak,Marta Bartkowiak,2018-04-11 This book aims to thoroughly discuss new directions of thinking in the arena of environmental archaeology and test them by presenting new practical applications Recent theoretical and epistemological advancement in the field of archaeology calls for a re definition of the subdiscipline of environmental archaeology and its position within the practise of archaeology New technological and methodological discoveries in hard sciences and computer applications opened fresh ways for interdisciplinary collaborations thus introducing new branches and specialisations that need now to be accommodated and integrated within the previous status quo This edited volume will take the challenge and engage with contemporary international discussions about the role of the discipline within the general framework of archaeology By drawing upon these debates the contributors to this volume will rethink what environmental archaeology is and what kind of input the investigation of this kind of materiality has to the reconstruction of human history and sociality MIRIAM CAHN Marta Dziewanska,Kathleen Bühler,Adam Szymczyk,Éric de Chasse,Paul B.
