Andrew Holowchak,2022-09-20 Jefferson s years in France as minister plenipotentiary were a time of large edification He approached his ministry as a looker on Jefferson while in France always kept a critical distance from events so that he could measure and critically examine them from the perspective of a dispassionate natural philosopher Being dispassionate Jefferson was pulled into events only insofar as circumstances required him to do so Yet his adventures from his critical distance e g his trip to London to meet the king his ventures in the salons of Paris and his travels through Southern France Northern Italy the Rhineland and the Netherlands were many and varied He even at times lost his critical looker on perspective from distance as he allowed himself to become immersed in events as in the case of his relationship with lovely Italian artist and musician Maria Cosway This book is a portal into the mind of Thomas Jefferson as looker on during his tenure in Paris Why was Jefferson so eager to accept the ministry to Paris What was his impression of the great city and its people while he stayed What lessons while in Paris did he learn which he could transport to Virginia and his country Those and other questions Holowchak aims to answer in this book

The London and Paris ladies' magazine of fashion, ed. by mrs. Edward Thomas Jane Thomas (née Pinhorn), 1881 One Day in Paris... Wallace J. Gordon, 2005-07-21 Conventional wisdom said it could never happen For starters he was from Arizona and she was from Pennsylvania Almost a whole continent apart And he was a widower and she was a widow With 42 and 47 years respectively of happy marriage behind them And if that wasn't enough he was a young 75 and she was a lovely 69 old enough to know better one might say Then one day they boarded a plane for They noticed each other but didn't meet When the plane landed they ended up in the same hotel Arranged by the same tour group But both so engrossed in Paris they still didn't see each other Then it happened On the third day their group gathered for an introductory meeting and dinner They ended up sitting across from each other He said Hi She said Hello And the sparks began to fly That's when the love story that couldn't happen began to happen

Paris to the Moon Adam Gopnik, 2001-12-18 Paris The name alone conjures images of chestnut lined boulevards sidewalk cafés breathtaking façades around every corner in short an exquisite romanticism that has captured the American imagination for as long as there have been Americans In 1995 Adam Gopnik his wife and their infant son left the familiar comforts and hassles of New York City for the urbane glamour of the City of Light Gopnik is a longtime New Yorker writer and the magazine has sent its writers to Paris for decades but his was above all a personal pilgrimage to the place that had for so long been the undisputed capital of everything cultural and beautiful It was also the opportunity to raise a child who would know what it was to romp in the Luxembourg Gardens to enjoy a croque monsieur in a Left Bank café a child and perhaps a father too who would have a grasp of that Parisian sense of style we Americans find so elusive So in the grand tradition of the American abroad Gopnik walked the paths of the Tuileries enjoyed philosophical discussions at his local bistro wrote as violet twilight fell on the arrondissements Of course as readers of Gopnik's beloved and award winning Paris Journals in The New Yorker know there was also the matter of raising a child and carrying on with day to day not so fabled life Evenings with French intellectuals preceded middle of the night baby feedings afternoons were filled with trips to the Musée d'Orsay and pinball games weekday leftovers were eaten while three star chefs debated a culinary crisis As Gopnik describes in this funny and tender book the dual processes of navigating a foreign city and becoming a parent are not completely dissimilar journeys both hold new routines new languages a new set of rules by which everyday life is lived With singular wit and insight Gopnik weaves the magical with the mundane in a wholly delightful often hilarious look at what it was to be an American family man in Paris at the end of the twentieth century We went to Paris for a sentimental reeducation I did anyway even though the sentiments we were instructed in were not the ones we were expecting to learn which I believe is why they call it an education
