Subcommittee on Criminal Justice,1988 Primary Metabolism in Fruits Franco Famiani,Alberto Battistelli,Robert Peter Walker,Richard Charles Leegood,2022-02-23 Rewriting God Elaine Lindsay,2021-11-22 Women are rarely if ever mentioned in commentaries upon Australian Christianity and spirituality Only exceptional women are recognized as authorities on religious matters Why is this so Does it matter Don t people from the same religious tradition share similar experiences of the divine regardless of their gender Rewriting God asks whether women have been writing about the divine and whether their insights are different from those contained in malestream accounts of Australian Christianity and spirituality An analysis of the writings of popular theologians and religious commentators over the last twenty years suggests that the most popular form of spirituality among Australian theologians is Desert Spirituality An analysis of women s autobiographical writings however suggests that the desert is irrelevant to many women s spiritual experiences This book through a close investigation of the fictions of Thea Astley Elizabeth Jolley and Barbara Hanrahan attempts to posit alternative forms of women s spirituality and to signal ways in which this spirituality is already being expressed From the evidence gathered here it becomes obvious that traditional expressions of Australian Christianity and spirituality are gender specific and that they have functioned to deny women s religious experiences and to silence their claims to equality in the sight and service of the divine It becomes obvious too that women have been developing their own forms of religious expression and that these may be expected to supplant gradually withering images of Desert Spirituality Whether this new imagery will strengthen Australian Christianity or whether it merely marks a decline in the authority of Christianity remains a moot point Film Criticism in the Digital Age Mattias Frey,Cecilia Sayad,2015-04-20

Over the past decade as digital media has expanded and print outlets have declined pundits have bemoaned a crisis of criticism and mourned the death of the critic Now that well paying jobs in film criticism have largely evaporated while blogs message boards and social media have given new meaning to the saying that everyone s a critic urgent questions have emerged about the status and purpose of film criticism in the twenty first century In Film Criticism in the Digital Age ten scholars from across the globe come together to consider whether we are witnessing the extinction of serious film criticism or seeing the start of its rebirth in a new form Drawing from a wide variety of case studies and methodological perspectives the book s contributors find many signs of the film critic s declining clout but they also locate surprising examples of how critics whether moonlighting bloggers or salaried writers have been able to intervene in current popular discourse about arts and culture In addition to collecting a plethora of scholarly perspectives Film Criticism in the Digital Age includes statements from key bloggers and print critics like Armond White and Nick James Neither an uncritical celebration of digital culture nor a jeremiad against it this anthology offers a comprehensive look at the challenges and possibilities that the Internet brings to the evaluation promotion and explanation of artistic works Community Resilience and Climate Change Challenges:

Lafcadio Hearn, 2018-08-14 Featuring a wide range of writings from Hearn's time in America this collection is a stunning showcase of the Greek Irish author's uniquely decadent literary flair and keen eye for observation. A translator of Flaubert and Gautier, Lafcadio Hearn was the master of a gaudy and sometimes self-consciously decadent literary style but he was also a tough-minded and keenly observant reporter with an eye for the offbeat, the sensual and occasionally the gruesome. The writings of his American years collected in this Library of America volume on subjects as wide-ranging as comparative folklore, the history of musical instruments, French literary avant-gardes and New Orleans voodoo reveal an omnivorous curiosity and an always eclectic sensibility. Some Chinese Ghosts 1887, a stylized retelling of ancient legends foreshadows Hearn's later fascination with Asian themes. The exquisitely crafted novels Chita 1889 about the devastation wrought by a Louisiana hurricane and Youma 1890 about a slave rebellion in Martinique epitomize his writing at its most luxuriantly romantic, alert to the interactions of diverse cultures and suffused with imagistic splendor. His extraordinary travel book Two Years in the French West Indies 1890 presented here with the many illustrations from its first edition provides a richly impressionistic account of his long stay on Martinique and other Caribbean islands. Also included are personal letters as well as more than a dozen examples of Hearn's journalism from the 1870s and 1880s depicting vividly a raucous African American nightclub on the Cincinnati waterfront, an execution scene of Mardi Gras and the New Orleans French Quarter, an uncharted village of Filipino fishermen in a remote Louisiana bayou. LIBRARY OF AMERICA is an independent nonprofit cultural organization founded in 1979 to preserve our nation's literary heritage by publishing and keeping permanently in print America's best and most significant writing. The Library of America series includes more than 300 volumes to date, authoritative editions that average 1,000 pages in length, feature cloth covers, sewn bindings, and ribbon markers, and are printed on premium acid-free paper that will last for centuries.
