Making the Poem George S. Lensing, 2018-06-09 Over sixty years after his death Wallace Stevens remains one of the major figures of American modernist poetry celebrated for his masterful style formal rigor and aesthetic investigations of the natural political and metaphysical worlds In Making the Poem noted Stevens scholar George S. Lensing explores the poet's progress in the creation of his body of work considering its development composition and reception Drawing on little known sources and nuanced readings of Stevens texts Lensing expands the customary view of the poet's creative approaches This wide ranging study extends from the origins and overlapping themes of well known poems through the social and political backgrounds that marked Stevens work to the prosodic and musical elements central to his style Making the Poem features a dynamic new reading of the important early poem Sea Surface Full of Clouds viewing it alongside his wife Elsie's journal describing the sea voyage that inspired the poem and an extensive multiperspective treatment of the widely anthologized The Idea of Order at Key West as well as a careful excavation of the poem Mozart 1935 in the context of the U.S. Great Depression Lensing concludes with a discussion of the gradual and sometimes reluctant recognition Stevens work received from poets and critics in Great Britain and Ireland Stemming from decades of research and writing Making the Poem: Stevens Approaches presents a holistic view of his creative achievements and a wealth of new material for readers to draw upon in their future encounters with the poetry of Wallace Stevens

A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry

Neil Roberts, 2008-06-09 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century
