organizations In 1920 he sought the Republican nomination for president managing to garner more votes on the first ballot than the eventual winner Warren Harding Rosenthal's richly detailed elegantly crafted narrative captures the mania and genius that propelled Butler to these extraordinary achievements and more Thick with social cultural and political history Nicholas Miraculous recreates Butler's prodigious career and the dynamic age that nourished him NEA Literature Fellowships Don Ball, 2008-12 The National Endowment for the Arts NEA Literature Fellowship Program has helped new writers find their voices and established authors continue their work Some of the early grants went to writers whose work is now a permanent part of America's literary legacy such as Gwendolyn Brooks Isaac Bashevis Singer John Berryman Denise Levertov Robert Penn Warren and Eudora Welty The NEA Fellowships have also recognized many writers before their talents were acknowledged by a wider audience such as Alice Walker Tobias Wolff and Maxine Hong Kingston This publication issued in the 40th year of NEA's existence celebrates the history of the NEA Literature Fellowship Program Photos The New York Public Library Literature Companion Staff of The New York Public Library, 2001-11-06 Pick up The New York Public Library Literature Companion to check the dates of Marcel Proust's Remembrance of Things Past or to find out how James Joyce's Ulysses changed U.S. obscenity laws and you may find yourself hours later absorbed in the imaginary worlds of Camelot and The Matrix or sidetracked by the fascinating history of The New Yorker Designed to satisfy the curious browser as well as the serious researcher this exciting new resource offers the most up to date information on literature available in English from around the world from the invention of writing to the age of the computer Interwoven throughout the more than 2,500 succinct and insightful entries on Creators Works of Literature and Literary Facts and Resources are the fascinating facts and quirky biographical details that make literature come alive Readers will discover for instance that Walt Whitman was fired from his government job after his personal copy of Leaves of Grass was discovered in his desk by the Secretary of the Interior who was scandalized by it that James Baldwin remembered listening to blues singer Bessie Smith playing her till I fell asleep when he was writing his first book and that a publisher turned down the serialization rights to Gone with the Wind saying Who needs the Civil War now who cares Looking for information about book burning or how many Nobel laureates have come from Japan You'll find it here Trying to remember the name of that movie based on a favorite book Read the Variations section you'll be amazed at the pervasive presence of great literature in today's entertainment From Aristophanes to Allende from Bergson to Bloom the biographical entries will inform readers about the men and women who have shaped and are shaping the literary world Look into Works of Literature to discover the significance of Beowulf The Fountainhead Doctor Zhivago and nearly 1,000 other titles Check the Dictionary of Literature to find out what the critics and theorists are talking about And if you wish to delve even deeper Websites for Literature and Literary Factbooks and Handbooks are just two of the bibliographies that will point readers in the right direction Unique in scope and design and easy to use The New York Public Library Literature Companion will be at home on every reader's shelf Whether you are

Clark, 2017-04-19 This book is based on the premise that humankind is first and foremost the outcome of the process of biological evolution Recognition of this is fundamental to our understanding of who we are and how we behave All living things have evolved the physical and mental attributes that promote their prospects for survival they are good at doing the things that enable them to pass on their genes to succeeding generations and we are no exception Of course through the development of culture we have gained some freedom from our biological origins Nevertheless evolution has constructed the foundation upon which culture is built The first part of the book Ourselves Interacting with the World presents an overview of the main capabilities that evolution has endowed us with and that enable us to interact with the environment in advantageous ways This includes our senses which act as windows on the world and also of great importance our emotions and ability to remember Our ability to think is perhaps the crowning achievement of our evolutionary journey and of course we must be able to act in a timely and effective manner The second part of the book Living Together traces the history of how we became social creatures To be truly human we had to be capable of sharing and cooperation We also needed to be able to control our aggressiveness and talent for deception We settled down making the transition from hunter gatherers to urban dwellers and agreed upon values and norms of behavior that enhanced our ability to get along Ultimately we came to see good and bad as a morality of right and wrong further augmenting group cohesiveness In the final part of the book Challenges and Opportunities attention turns to a consideration of the constraints and possibilities that must be considered in looking to the future These realities can be seen to play out in four social arenas the pursuit of fairness the seeking of justice the interplay of political beliefs and good government and ultimately a united society that is at the same time a true community Our quest for these things will be greatly aided by a deep knowledge and appreciation of our evolutionary past and the indelible imprint it has left upon us It may even lead us to that most elusive of all things happiness

Understanding Steven Millhauser Earl G. Ingersoll, 2014-02-19 An exploration of the thematic interests and narrative strategies of a contemporary American master of fiction Earl Ingersoll introduces the fiction of Steven Millhauser whose distinguished career of more than four decades includes eight books of short fiction and four novels the latest being the Pulitzer Prize winning Martin Dressler 1996 In Understanding Steven Millhauser Ingersoll explores Millhauser's twelve books chronologically revealing the development of a major contemporary American writer and a master of fiction who cares as deeply about his craft as the modernists did earlier in the past century While most examinations of an author's work begin with at least a biographical sketch Ingersoll has faced distinct challenges because Millhauser has resisted efforts to read his fiction through the lens of his biography Responding to an interviewer's request for a brief biography Millhauser provided the succinct 1943 Part of such resistance Ingersoll argues arises from Millhauser's belief that if readers have too many questions about an author's work the author has failed and no amount of response can redress that failure Millhauser's central characters such as August Eschenburg and J Franklin Payne are often themselves artists or technicians who are overreachers and Ingersoll shows that Millhauser's early expressions of literary realism have given way to interest in departures from the real For Millhauser stories like conjuring tricks are invented because history is inadequate to our dreams Millhauser's strength is the ability to sustain obsessions because works of fiction succeed insofar as they are able to supplant reality As a master fabulist Ingersoll argues Millhauser is preoccupied with extravagance both in the subject matter of his fiction and in his style Whether it involves Martin Dressler doing himself in by designing and constructing increasingly complex hotels or the miniaturists in the short story Cathay pushing their impulse to extremes past the eye's ability to see their art objects Millhauser's fiction is full of such an impulse which can produce prolific artists as well as compulsive lunatics The triumph of Millhauser's craft Ingersoll shows is that it merges a fascination with the relationship between imagination and experience with a precise and allusive prose to produce works seamlessly joining the everyday with the radical and fantastic in forms ranging from travelogues of the imagination to works merging the waking world with the world of dreams
