Martin Heidegger On Being Human:

Martin Heidegger on Being Human Richard Schmitt, 1976 What is a Human Being? Frederick A. Olafson, 1995-07-28 Olafson develops Heidegger's philosophy and yields a distinctive new alternative in the philosophy of mind Heidegger on Being Uncanny Katherine Withy, 2015-04-07 There are bizarre moments when we feel like strangers to ourselves Through an investigation of Heidegger's concept of uncanniness Katherine Withy explores what such experiences reveal She shows that we can be what we are only if we do not fully understand what it is to be us and points toward what it is to live well as an uncanny human being Being Human in an Artificial World Geoffrey W. Cheong, 2024-06-01 The vision of Raimon Panikkar is to examine an understanding of the fulness of the human experience understood ultimately in the iconic image of Jesus the Christ This book aims to explore an understanding of his work in context context of the history of humanity the emerging integral era of perception the context of the contemporary secular society which he speaks of as an artificial life and the context of creation and the creator As creature he sees the secret of life in the inter relational nature of the three creature creation and creator The unique nature of this mysterious three way unity leads him to coin a term to speak of its nature as Cosmotheandric His extensive academic background of philosophy theology and science and the broad life of spirituality lived in the context of the interreligious world of both East and West equips well his mind to probe life's nature Of his many students Ewert Cousins asks the pertinent question of how to live Panikkar's vision It is the author's contribution to respond to Cousins' question while drawing upon Panikkar's cosmotheandric concept by drawing upon contemporary knowledge through the model of the scriptural wisdom to love God and one's neighbour as one's self This he refers to as Relational Spirituality The integral era of history is appearing on the horizon of the global psyche to birth a new era of human mindfulness like never before Carl Jaspers has highlighted two major times of transition shaping humankind through the passing millennia that have moved humanity from a simple human life to the highly complex time of today Jaspers spoke of the transition in human consciousness through the millennium prior to the life of Jesus Christ as the First Axial Period of History Martin Heidegger Teilhard de Chardin Jean Gebser Ken Wilber Ewert Cousins Raimon Panikkar are some of the thought leaders of our time who have made major contributions to this understanding of the emerging Integral awareness For many the disturbing changes encountered on the surface of society ring loudly of crisis Secularisation is the dominant life style primarily shaped by the cyber revolution and its Artificial Intelligence Most concerning is the range of questions humans face about their personal value and loss of substantial meaning Dr Cheong draws upon the great minds listed above in particular the work of Raimon Panikkar to map a pathway for growing more fully into an Integral way of life which he refers to as Relational Spirituality The Embarrassment of Being Human Benjamin Boysen, 2024-12-24 With the message that everything in a sense is alive thus allowing us to join forces with new politico ethical communities stretching across human and nonhuman realms the new materialisms have captivated the minds of many academics artists and intellectuals by stressing that it is time to return to a premodern mindset and discard modernity and its concepts of secularization autonomy and finitude The Embarrassment of Being Human not only demonstrates how these magical materialisms are beset by grave theoretical and practical inconsistencies and self contradictions It also demonstrates how their demand for humans to step down and allow for an emancipation of things qualifies the new materialisms as a metaphysics of neoliberalism that reproduces and fortifies the self contradictions rampant in the current neoliberal hegemony While helping us to gain a comprehensive understanding of the tenets of the eerie ills of our epoch the critique of the new materialisms can furthermore inspire us to appreciate how the exact inversion of the new materialist complex amounts to a revitalization of the modern project A revitalization that is critical to think our epoch differently

(Un)Learning to Be Human? Stefan Herbrechter, 2024-09-23 Critical posthumanism is a theory paradigm that has become hugely influential across the humanities and social sciences in the last twenty years This volume collects essays written over the last decade by one of the founders and leading figures of this movement Originally a reaction to accelerated technological and media change that challenges traditional notions of what it means to be human posthumanism as opposed to transhumanism has developed into a general critique and reappraisal of life after humanism and anthropocentrism The essays collected here are dealing with aspects of education technology politics media and art and share a focus on how to critique and unlearn traditional understandings of humanness and re learn what it means to be human differently The Human Paradox Ralph Heintzman, 2022-08-31 What is a human being What does it mean to be human How can you lead your life in ways that best fulfil your own nature In The Human Paradox Ralph Heintzman explores these vital questions and offers an exciting new vision of the nature of the human The Human Paradox aims to counter or correct several contemporary assumptions about the nature of the human especially the tendency of Western culture since the seventeenth century to identify the human with rationality and the rational mind Using the lens of the virtues The Human Paradox shows how rediscovering the nature of the human can help not just to understand one's own paradoxical nature but to act in ways that are more consistent with its full reality Offering accessible insight from both traditional and contemporary thought The Human Paradox shows how a fuller richer vision of the human can help address urgent contemporary problems including the challenges of cultural and religious diversity human migration and human rights the role of the market artificial intelligence the future of democracy and global climate change This fresh perspective on the Western past will guide readers into what it means to be human and open new possibilities for the future The Eclipse of Humanity Lawrence Perlman, 2016-01-29 It has been widely assumed that Heschel's writings are poetic inspirations devoid of philosophical analysis and unresponsive to the evil of the Holocaust Who Is Man 1965 contains a detailed phenomenological analysis of man and being which is directed at the main work of Martin Heidegger found primarily in Being and Time 1927 and Letter on Humanism 1946 When the analysis of Who Is Man is unpacked in the light of these associations it is clear that Heschel rejected poetry and metaphor as a means of theological elucidation that he offered a profound examination of the Holocaust and that the major thrust of his thinking eschews Heideggerian deconstruction and the postmodernism that ensued in its phenomenological wake Who Is Man contains direct and indirect criticisms of Heidegger's notions of Dasein, thrownness, facticity, and submission, to name a few essential Heideggerian concepts. In using his ontological connective method in opposition to Heidegger's ontological difference, Heschel makes the argument that the biblical notion of Adam as a being open to transcendence stands in opposition to the philosophical tradition from Parmenides to Heidegger and is the only basis for a redemptive view of humanity.

Heidegger Richard Polt, 2013-10-16 Heidegger is a classic introduction to Heidegger's notoriously difficult work. Truly accessible, it combines clarity of exposition with an authoritative handling of the subject matter. Richard Polt has written a work that will become the standard text for students looking to understand one of the century's greatest minds.

Being and Becoming Through Higher Education Gloria Dall'Alba, 2024-07-10 This book focuses on the importance of an ontological dimension for today's higher education with critical attention to implications for the student experience, engagement, satisfaction, wellbeing, employability, dis-embodiment, and activism in which students take a stand on their own being and becoming. In accessible language, key philosophical ideas are explored for their relevance to contemporary higher education, integrating philosophical with pedagogical perspectives. Although much of the material has been published previously, there is value in bringing it together into a single volume in exploring an ontological dimension of higher education as it is embodied. In doing so, the book demonstrates benefits to pedagogy through sustained attention to philosophy and theory and vice versa, thereby contributing to recent heightened interest in the philosophy and theory of higher education. This book is intended to prompt re-imagining the ways in which higher education is conceived and conducted. An argument is put forward for greater emphasis on expanding possibilities for knowing, acting, and being toward fuller lives of interdependence with others and things in an interconnected world. Through highlighting an ontological dimension in this manner, a hope-filled future emerges for higher education.

Heidegger and the Global Age Antonio Cerella, Louiza Odysseos, 2017-10-18 Globalization is one of the most contested and abused concepts of our time. Whether one interprets it as a collective illusion or as the final stage of capitalism, as uncontrollable multitude, or as a radical opening of new spaces of freedom, the global age represents the conceptual and existential background of our being in the world. But what lies behind this process? What mode of human existence is brought about by the age of technology and global mobilization? And is it possible to attempt a unitary interpretation of this age that presents itself as both total and pluralistic? This volume rethinks these epochal questions in light of Martin Heidegger's complex hermeneutics, proposing at the same time that such questions enable the interrogation of some of its most fundamental aspects: the metanarrative of Seinsgeschichte as withdrawal of Being, the structure of human existence within the frame of technology, the relation between humanism and nihilism, as well as politics and technology, the changing character of subjectivity in the age of the world picture the mythopoeic force of art and the uprooting of human beings As this volume shows interrogating Heidegger's thought has significant potential for both International Political Theory and also the analysis of specific concepts and dynamics in contemporary international studies such as the changing character of spatiality temporality and subjectivity

The Revelation of Nature Paul Matthews, 2017-07-05 This title was first published in 2001 The Revelation of Nature embraces pragmatism aesthetics and metaphysics in an effort to narrate a fundamental relationship between the contemporary world and the natural source and site for any world of meaning Beginning with an exploration of Heidegger's seminal insight into the way we exist that human existence must be understood in its everydayness Matthews links these ideas to Heidegger's interpretation of the development of Western history in terms of its grounding metaphysical determinations to do with truth reality and the nature of things Matthews concludes that our everyday lives are informed and shaped by intellectual precepts and normative modes of behaviour that promote the combination and enslavement of both nature and ourselves within a mass technological grid This book breaks new ground in theology without underpinning the analysis with a particular religious viewpoint

A Belief in Humanity: The Untold Story of Conciliar Humanism Thomas D. Carroll, 2024-09-12 I believe in a new humanity Evocative words spoken by Pope Francis to the assembled young people in Kraków Poland during the final mass for World Youth Day on July 31 2016 What was he thinking about Where did this idea come from This book answers these questions and examines for the first time an original way of thinking about our shared humanity a way that was intimated sixty years ago and is still to be explored

Mircea Eliade's Vision for a New Humanism David Cave, 1993 Mircea Eliade influential writer and scholar of religion envisioned a spiritually destitute modern culture coming into renewed meaning through the recovery of archetypal myths and symbols Eliade foresaw this restoration of meaning bringing about a new humanism of existential meaning and cultural religious unity but left it ambiguously defined Cave sets forward a structural description of what this new humanism might have meant for Eliade and what it signifies for modern culture through a biographical exegesis of Eliade's life and writings from his early years in Romania to his last years as professor of the history of religions at the University of Chicago Addressing Eliade's political associations and espousals on Romanian politics and culture theories on myth and symbols existential and comparative hermeneutics literature of the fantastic interpretation of homo religiosus views on the loss of meaning in modern consciousness and on the cosmic spirituality of archaic humans as well as other subjects Cave sets these topics within the totality of Eliade's oeuvre and evaluates them through the lens of the new humanism Cave's book is the first to organize and evaluate the whole of Eliade's work around a guiding principle and on Eliade's own terms To augment the new humanism Cave uses data and themes from the history of religions and draws on philosophy anthropology psychology modern science and literary studies The result is a broad and probing overview of this most influential enigmatic and frequently controversial man Cave concludes by endorsing Eliade's radically pluralistic vision which he argues offers a key to the revitalization of our demythologized and material culture. Cave also repositions previous Eliadean studies and places the new humanism as the paradigm in relation to which future readings of Eliade should be evaluated. Speaking Being Bruce Hyde, Drew Kopp, 2019-08-06. Speaking Being Werner Erhard. Martin Heidegger and a New Possibility of Being Human is an unprecedented study of the ideas and methods developed by the thinker Werner Erhard. In this book those ideas and methods are revealed by presenting in full an innovative program he developed in the 1980s called The Forum, available in this book as a transcript of an actual course led by Erhard in San Francisco in December of 1989. Since its inception, Erhard's work has impacted the lives of millions of people throughout the world. Central to this study is a comparative analysis of Erhard's rhetorical project, The Forum, and the philosophical project of Martin Heidegger. Through this comparative analysis, the authors demonstrate how each thinker's work sometimes parallels and often illuminates the other. The dialogue at work in The Forum functions to generate a language which speaks being. That is, The Forum is an instance of what the authors call ontological rhetoric, a technology of communicating what cannot be said in language. Nevertheless, what does get said allows those participating in the dialogue to discover previously unseen aspects of what it currently means to be human. As a primary outcome of such discovery, access to creating a new possibility of what it is to be human is made available. The purpose of this book is to show how communication of the unspoken realm of language, speaking being, is actually accomplished in The Forum and to demonstrate how Erhard did it in 1989. Through placing Erhard's language use next to Heidegger's thinking, presented in a series of Sidebars and Intervals alongside The Forum transcript, the authors have made two contributions. They have illuminated the work of two thinkers who independently developed similar forms of ontological rhetoric while working from very different times and places. Hyde and Kopp have also, for the first time, made Erhard's extraordinary form of ontological rhetoric available for a wide range of audiences, from scholars at work within a variety of academic disciplines to anyone interested in exploring the possibility of being for human beings. From the Afterword, I regard Speaking Being as an enormously important contribution to understanding Heidegger and Erhard. The latter has received far too little serious academic attention, and this book begins to make up for that lack. Moreover, the book's analysis of Heidegger's thought is among the best that I have ever read. I commend this book to all readers without reservation. Michael E.

Walters, 2012-01-02. Karl Jaspers, who died in 1969, had a profound impact on 20th century theology and philosophy. His central thesis called for, among other things, a de-centering of philosophy from its Eurocentric roots and a renewal of its dialogue with other traditions, especially Asian ones. This collection of essays includes unpublished work by Jaspers himself as well as testimonies to his life and career by colleagues, associates, and translators, some of whom knew Jaspers personally.

Readers will also find commentary and interpretation by researchers who have explored Jaspers work for decades and a biographical account of Jaspers student Leonard Ehrlich who handled much of Jaspers English translation The book interrogates Jaspers conceptions of philosophical faith his philosophy of communication and the prospects for world philosophy in the future Focusing on philosophical faith it assesses Jaspers interpretations of key philosophers such as Kant Hegel Schelling Kierkegaard Nietzsche and Rosenzweig as well as examining his personal relationships with Bultmann and Heidegger Contributors also look at Jaspers philosophies of religion and history his hypothesis of the axial age Achsenzeit and his contributions to metaphysics periechontology and economics Finally chapters cover Jaspers philosophy of communication and world history The latter are informed by a burgeoning interest in Kantian Freiheitphilosophie that influenced Jaspers as well as concerns over the future of humanity These concerns in part account for Jaspers growing popularity in the Middle East Eastern Europe Central South America and Asia Also included are lucid clarifications of the difference between religious and philosophical faith and the relevance of certainty trust and communication for a future of mankind Trained as a psychiatrist Jaspers practiced this profession before becoming a philosopher and thus had a keen insight into the workings of the human mind even as he challenged the philosophical establishment of his time It is perhaps this depth to his background that adds to the contemporary relevance of his work
