Martin Yan's Culinary Journey Through China Martin Yan, 1995 The host of the popular PBS show Yan Can Cook offers more than one hundred easy to prepare recipes for Chinese food organized by region and adapted to American kitchens along with notes on regional cuisine and photographs Martin Yan's China Martin Yan, 2008-04-30 Chef Martin Yan explores the Mandarin Shanghai Sichuan and Cantonese cuisines of China China's Three Gorges, Xi'an and the Terracotta Warriors Simon Foster, Vivien Loughheed, 2009-10-15 This guide is based on our much larger 530 page guide to Bolivia Here we zero in on La Paz the capital and all of the nearby attractions La Paz is not a big city on the world scale but it is certainly one of the more interesting ones Built in a bowl created by the Choqueyapu River the upper parts of the city stand 1 645 ft 500 m above the lower sections Unlike any other city in the world the richer neighborhoods are located at the lower levels This is partly due to the fact that it is warmer and easier to breathe at the lower altitudes Also the pinnacles and spires of conglomerate rock and clay that have been sculptured by wind and water make a dramatic backdrop for those living below them The higher up the bowl one goes the more unstable the land becomes and the more likely a landslide will occur The plazas squares and Prado are well kept in La Paz and even in the depth of winter plants are tended to help make the city attractive Street cleaners are out every day and local merchants regularly wash the area in front of their shops On a clear day Mount Illimani a snow covered monolith can be seen as a sentry towering over the city Valley of the Moon is six miles 10 km from the center of La Paz and can be reached by joining a tour or by taking micro bus 11 or minibus 231 or 273 to Mallasilla The hillside features a maze of clay canyons and pinnacles that have been sculpted by wind and rain Narrow trails through the landscape take about an hour to walk There is also a cactus park just before the entrance The park overlooks a gorge and has paths leading around numerous types of cacti As you continue up the road you will come to Parque Nacional Mallasa with its bird observatory and across the road the zoo area The road passes under natural stone bridges and past Chulpani s Red Hill There is no mistaking which hill this is From Mallasa one can see across the river to the highest golf course in the world Devil s Tooth or Muela del Diablo is a huge volcanic plug sticking out of the landscape to a height of 13 000 ft 3 950 m Several trails go to the right follow the one that obviously leads to the village From there go to the left for 3 miles about half a kilometer to the foot of the rock Climbers are occasionally found on the east face Canyon de Palca or Valle de Animas is a deep canyon that was carved by the Rio Palca centuries ago To get there take a bus going to Huni from Plaza Belzu on Avenida Mexico in San Pedro There are huge pinnacles and wind carved conglomerates The trail continues along the bottom of the canyon to a natural obelisk Just past the obelisk is a rock that has the appearance of a human hiding in a cave The rock is called the hermit of the canyon Continue along the canyon to its end and climb to your left up to the village of Palca This is a long day hike All of the detailed information you need is here about the hotels restaurants shopping sightseeing But we also lead you to new discoveries turning corners you haven t turned before helping you to interact with

Beijing and Surroundings Simon Foster, 2011-04-15 Arrive in Beijing and spend a few days soaking up the Imperial sights at the Forbidden City Temple of Heaven Summer Palaces and the Great Wall Spend your evenings enjoying Beijing duck opera and maybe a trip to the acrobats If you have time take a train up to Chengde and spend a couple of days enjoying the imperial retreat before returning to the capital and flying on to Xi'an Allow a full day at the Terracotta Warriors and another day to explore the fascinating walled city Make sure you enjoy a Dumpling Banquet as well as dinner in the Muslim markets Reflect on your trip in the overnight train back to Beijing Beijing literally translated means Northern Capital a title it has held since the Ming Dynasty see History and a name that still holds true today Whether imagining the past or marveling at the future this city is most definitely still the cultural political and to the Pekinese geographical heart of the Middle Kingdom While Beijing's modern appearance owes much to the Communist era and the recent influx of capitalist cash its most impressive and inspiring monuments are recognition of its long imperial tradition The scale of the city with its population of 15 million can initially be overwhelming but even a short meander into one of Beijing's remaining hutong districts brings you close to the realities of daily life and all of a sudden the city seems human again While the vast number of construction sites flyovers and mirrored skyscrapers can come as a shock to those hoping for a view of the years when Beijing was the emperor's seat a visit to any one of the principal imperial sights the Forbidden City the Temple of Heaven or the Summer Palaces easily remedies this However the greatest of Beijing's if not the world's sights lies north of the city The Great Wall never ceases to amaze and it's worth spending a couple of days out of the city to fully appreciate its majesty If you have enough time and want more imperial splendor the rugged countryside around the capital holds Ming and Qing tombs while farther afield the Mountain Resort at Chengde was long a popular emperor's haunt and has some wild scenery along with its subdued palaces and grand temples This a highly detailed guide to everything you need to know about Beijing and its surroundings the places to stay the restaurants and what to see and do along with an extensive introductory section on China as a whole The author lives in China and has been a tour guide there full time for close to 10 years This guide is an excerpt from his much larger guide to all of China also published by Hunter which is 650 pages in the print edition
