Martyr Of The Catacombs The A Tale Of Ancient Rome:

Martyr of the Catacombs (Historical Novel) James De Mille, 2022-01-04 Martyr of the Catacombs tells the story of Christians during the great persecution under the Roman Emperor Decius Marcellus is a successful young Roman Army officer chosen by the Emperor for that highest of advancements assignment to the Praetorian Guard Upon his arrival in Rome he witnesses a spectacle in the Coliseum A famous gladiator Macer defeats all opponents but at the end he announces that he will not kill a fellow gladiator because he is a Christian He declares his faith in Jesus Christ infuriating the mob and allows his defeated opponent to slay him As Marcellus ponders upon what he has seen his friend Lucullus brings him word from the Emperor as to why he has been brought to Rome Marcellus is to lead a group of soldiers from the Praetorian Guard down into the catacombs to hunt these Christians out and bring them to punishment While on a scouting mission in his effort to gather intelligence on them Marcellus meets several Christians becomes closer to them and to Christian faith which he eventually accepts becoming a fugitive and an outlaw The Martyr of the Catacombs ,1982 The Martyr of the Catacombs ,1956 The Martyr of the Catacombs Anonymous Author, 2021-05-03 And now while Macer stood there the recipient of unbounded applause a man entered from the opposite side It was the African His arm had not been bound up but hung down by his side covered with blood He staggered toward Macer with painful steps The Romans knew that he had been sent out to be killed The wretch knew it himself also for as he drew near to his antagonist he dropped his sword and cried out in a kind of desperation Quick kill me and put me out of pain To the amazement of all Macer stepped back and flung down his sword The spectators stared and wondered Still more amazed were they when Macer turned toward the emperor and stretched out his hands August Emperor he cried I am a Christian I will fight wild beasts but I will not raise my hand against a fellow man I can die but I will not kill Whereupon a mighty murmur arose What does he say cried Marcellus A Christian when did that happen I heard said Lucullus that he was visited in his cell by some of these wretched Christians and joined their contemptible sect They are made up of the offscouring of man kind It is very probable that he is a Christian And will he incur death rather than fight That is the way with these fanatics Rage took the place of surprise in the fierce multitude They were indignant that a mere gladiator should dare to disappoint them The attendants rushed out to interfere The fight must go on If Macer would not fight he should take the consequences But he was firm Unarmed he advanced toward the African whom he could have slain even then with a blow of his fist The face of the African was like that of a fiend Surprise joy and triumph gleamed in his sinister eyes Seizing his sword in a firm grasp he struck Macer to the heart Lord Jesus receive my spirit The words were drowned in a torrent of blood and this humble but bold witness for Christ passed away from earth to join the noble army of martyrs From Chapter One Martyr of the Catacombs Anonymous Christian, Anonymous, 18?? This anthology is a thorough introduction to classic literature for those who have not yet experienced these literary masterworks For those who have known and loved these works in the past this is an invitation to reunite with old friends in a fresh new format From Shakespeare s finesse to Oscar Wilde s wit this unique collection brings together works as diverse and influential as The Pilgrim s Progress and Othello As an anthology that invites readers to immerse themselves in the masterpieces of the literary giants it is must have addition to any library The Child of the Dawn Arthur Christopher

Benson,2022-09-15 In The Child of the Dawn Arthur Christopher Benson crafts a poignant exploration of innocence and awakening set against the backdrop of early 20th century England The narrative unfolds through the eyes of young Colin whose idyllic childhood is juxtaposed with the inevitability of loss and the onset of adulthood Benson s lyrical prose is imbued with a sense of nostalgia and philosophical inquiry drawing on literary influences such as Victorian moralism and the burgeoning Modernist movement The novel operates as a contemplative meditation on the transient nature of happiness and the bittersweet transition into maturity echoing themes found in the works of contemporaries like Thomas Hardy and E M Forster Arthur Christopher Benson a multifaceted writer and educator was deeply influenced by the world around him including his own experiences of grief and introspection following family tragedies He was a part of the influential Benson family which included notable figures in literature and academia His role as a university lecturer and his interest in spiritual and philosophical issues undoubtedly informed the reflective nature of this novel positioning him as a voice of his generation grappling with change and uncertainty The Child of the Dawn invites readers on a profound journey that resonates with anyone who has experienced the pangs of transition from childhood to adulthood Benson s masterful prose and thoughtful themes make this work an essential read for those interested in the complexities of human experience and the loss of innocence This novel is particularly recommended for fans of early 20th century literature seeking a rich immersive narrative that will linger in the mind long after the final page
