Marxism And Radical Religion Essays Toward A Revolutionary Humanism:

Marxism and Radical Religion John C. Raines, Thomas Dean, 1970 Marxism, Revolution and Utopia Herbert Marcuse, 2014-03-26 This collection assembles some of Herbert Marcuse's most important work and presents for the first time his responses to and development of classic Marxist approaches to revolution and utopia as well as his own theoretical and political perspectives This sixth and final volume of Marcuse's collected papers shows Marcuse's rejection of the prevailing twentieth century Marxist theory and socialist practice which he saw as inadequate for a thorough critique of Western and Soviet bureaucracy and the development of his revolutionary thought towards a critique of the consumer society Marcuse's later philosophical perspectives on technology ecology and human emancipation sat at odds with many of the classic tenets of Marx's materialist dialectic which placed the working class as the central agent of change in capitalist societies As the material from this volume shows Marcuse was not only a theorist of Marxist thought and practice in the twentieth century but also proves to be an essential thinker for understanding the neoliberal phase of capitalism and resistance in the twenty first century A comprehensive introduction by Douglas Kellner and Clayton Pierce places Marcuse's philosophy in the context of his engagement with the main currents of twentieth century philosophy while also providing important analyses of his anticipatory theorization of capitalist development through a neoliberal restructuring of society The volume concludes with an afterword by Peter Marcuse Du Bois's Dialectics Reiland Rabaka, 2009-01-01 With chapters that undertake ideological critiques of education religion the politics of reparations and the problematics of black radical politics in contemporary culture and society Du Bois's Dialectics employs Du Bois as its critical theoretical point of departure and demonstrates his and Africana Studies contributions to as well as contemporary critical theory's connections to critical pedagogy sociology of religion and reparations theory Rabaka offers the first critical theoretical treatment of the W E B Du Bois Booker T Washington debate which lucidly highlights Du Bois's transition from a bourgeois black liberal to a black radical and revolutionary democratic socialist Marxism and Radical Religion John C. Raines, Thomas Dean, 1970 This book grows out of a two day conference held at Temple University in April 1969 under the sponsorship of the Department of Religion Includes bibliographical references Herbert Marcuse and the Crisis of Marxism Douglas Kellner, 1984-01-01 This book provides a critical overview of the entirety of Marcuse's work and discusses his enduring importance Kellner had extensive interviews with Marcuse and provides hitherto unknown information about his road to Marxism his relations with Heidegger and Existentialism his involvement with the Frankfurt School and his reasons for appropriating Freud in the 1950s In addition Kellner provides a novel interpretation of the genesis and structure of Marcuse's theory of one dimensional society of the development of his political theory and of the role of aesthetics in his critical theory The Future of Religion Michael R. Ott, 2007 This book contains the work of international scholars who address the contemporary globalizing antagonism between religion and secularity in the theoretical and practical pursuit for this antagonism's reconciliation in a more just humane and peaceful future society and world The Political Theory of Liberation Theology

John R. Pottenger,1989-09-14 This is the first in depth look at the political theoretical structure of liberation theology Pottenger shows how liberation theologians writing from the perspective of the poor and oppressed denounce modernity and especially capitalism for having caused poverty and military dictatorships He evaluates the liberation theologians methodological approach to political theory and the crucial role of Marxism He also analyzes liberation theologians assessment of Latin American political economy and their moral arguments for political activism in response to these assessments Pottenger addresses the general question of to what extent liberation theology has achieved its ultimate objective of a just society of the convergence of traditional social values and modern political science The Frankfurt School J. M. Bernstein,1994 The Frankfurt School refers to the members associated with the Institut fur Sozialforschung Institute for Social Research which was founded in Frankfurt in 1923 The work of this group is generally agreed to have been a landmark in twentieth century social science It is of seminal importance in our understanding of culture progress politics production consumption and method This set of six volumes provides a full picture of the School by examining the important developments that have occurred since the deaths of the original core of Frankfurt scholars All the major figures Adorno Horkheimer Marcuse Benjamin are represented In particular the important post war work of Jurgen Habermas is fully assessed The collection also covers the work of many of the minor figures associated with the School who have been unfairly neglected in the past resulting in the most complete survey and guide to the oeuvre of the Frankfurt School Marcuse and Freedom (RLE Social Theory) Peter Lind,2020-07-26 This comprehensive study of Marcuse s thought concentrates on his theory of freedom arguing that it is this which supplies the key to all his writings This argument is substantiated by a detailed chronological examination of Marcuse s works The author shows the rigorous logic underlying Marcuse s thinking which is often obscured in Marcuse s own presentation and pays particular attention to the influence of Heidegger and of Marx s notion of human labour This sympathetic reconstruction of the subject attempts to rescue Marcuse from misunderstanding and superficial criticism and argues that Marcuse s most famous work One Dimensional Man is in fact an aberration from the mainstream of his work This book forms one of the most accessible and reliable treatments of Marcuse available Criticism of Earth Roland Boer,2012-06-08 Drawing on mostly ignored texts this book thoroughly reassesses Marx and Engels s engagement with theology Alongside opium Hegel and Feuerbach other dimensions become important historical context Bruno Bauer Max Stirner fetishism secularism political ambivalence and the revolutionary possibilities of theology

The Origins of Black Humanism in America J. Floyd-Thomas,2008-10-13 By examining the minister who helped inspire the founding of the Harlem Unitarian Church Reverend Ethelred Brown Floyd Thomas offers a provocative examination of the religious and intellectual roots of Black humanist thought Contextual Theology and Revolutionary Transformation in Latin America Angel D. Santiago-Vendrell,2010-06-01 U S audiences know Latin American liberation theologies largely through translations of Latin American Catholics from the 1970s and beyond. Most of the few known Protestant authors were students of Richard Shaull whose critical thinking on social change, prophetic Christianity and dialogue with Marxism and Christian use of Marxist analysis precedes the emergence of the formal schools of liberation theology by two decades. His own education at Princeton and the education he provided in Brazil charts the course of Protestant influences into this stream of theological reflection that became a global phenomenon in the latter decades of the twentieth century. Also, Shaull's career roughly parallels the emergence of the World Council of Churches and the engagement of the Catholic Church in Latin America and around the world after the Second Vatican Council. He himself was engaged and became the flash point in some of the major conferences, movements and institutions of the 1960s and beyond. Santiago Vendrell documents the entrance of the ecumenical movement in Brazil among the most dramatic transformations in Catholic-Protestant relations around the globe as well as Shaull's role in that development. Along the way, he notes Shaull's prophetic and destabilizing role in the worldwide student movement in the 60s and 70s, charting decisions that mark the ecumenical movement. Shaull's contributions are important for an understanding of the ethical debates in the worldwide ecumenical Protestant and Orthodox communities. Santiago Vendrell examines primary, secondary and historical documents that shine a light on Shaull's transformation into a contextual theologian of the poor. He offers a definitive view of this North American Protestant missionary who wrote extensively on Latin American liberation theology, the base Christian communities and how conversion to solidarity with the poor offers transforming possibilities for the mainline churches' theological identity and practical faith.

Forms of Fanonism Reiland Rabaka, 2010-03-08

When Frantz Fanon's critiques of racism, sexism, colonialism, capitalism and humanism are brought into the ever-widening orbit of Africana critical theory, something unprecedented in the annals of Africana intellectual history happens: five distinct forms of Fanonism emerge. Forms of Fanonism Frantz Fanon's Critical Theory and the Dialectics of Decolonization is discursively distinguished from other engagements of Fanon's thought and texts insofar as it is the first study to consciously examine his contributions to Africana Studies and critical theory or rather the Africana tradition of critical theory. Forms of Fanonism identifies and intensely analyzes Fanon's contributions to the deconstruction and reconstruction of Africana Studies, radical politics and critical social theory. In highlighting his unique solutions to the problems of racism, sexism, colonialism, capitalism and humanism, five distinct forms of Fanonism materialize. These five forms of Fanonism allow contemporary critical theorists to innovatively explore the ways in which his thought and texts can be dialectically put to use in relieving the wretched experience of this generation's wretched of the earth. Critics can also apply these forms to deconstruct and reconstruct Africana Studies, radical politics and critical social theory using their anti-imperialist interests. Throughout Forms of Fanonism, Reiland Rabaka critically dialogues with Fanon, incessantly asking his corpus critical questions and seeking from it crucial answers. This book, in short, solemnly keeps with Fanon's own predilection for connecting critical theory to revolutionary praxis by utilizing his thought and texts as paradigms and points of departure to deepen and develop the Africana tradition of critical theory

Africana Critical Theory Reiland Rabaka, 2009-01-01 Africana Critical Theory innovatively identifies and analyzes continental and diasporan African contributions to classical and contemporary critical theory through the works of W E B Du Bois C L R James Aime Cesaire Leopold Senghor Frantz Fanon and Amilcar Cabral Red Theology: On the Christian Communist Tradition Roland Boer, 2019-02-19 In Red Theology On the Christian Communist Tradition Roland Boer presents key moments in the 2 000 year tradition of Christian communism Defined by the two features of alternative communal practice and occasional revolutionary action Christian communism is predicated on profound criticism of the way of the world The book begins with Karl Kautsky the leading thinker of second generation Marxism and his oft ignored identification of this tradition From there it offers a series of case studies that deal with European instances the Russian Revolution and to East Asia Here we find the emergence of Christian communism not only in China but also in North Korea This book will be a vital resource for scholars and students of religion and the many aspects of socialist tradition Manifesto of the Critical Theory of Society and Religion (3 vols.) Rudolf Siebert, 2010-08-16 The Manifesto develops further the Critical Theory of Religion intrinsic to the Critical Theory of Society of the Frankfurt School into a new paradigm of the Psychology Sociology Philosophy and Theology of Religion Its central theme is the theodicy problem The Manifesto approaches this theme in the framework of comparative religion and critical political theology in a narrative and discursive fashion In search of a solution to the theodicy problem the Manifesto explores trends in civil society toward Alternative Future I the Totally Administered Society Alternative Future II the Militarized Society and Alternative Future III the Reconciled Society in the horizon of the longing for the Wholly Other as perfect justice and unconditional love Toward that goal it relies on both the critical theory of society as developed by Max Horkheimer Ernst Bloch Walter Benjamin Theodor W Adorno and others and on the new political theology of Johannes B Metz Helmut Peukert and Edmund Arens For the Gospel's Sake Boone Aldridge, 2018-04-12 Informed take on the amazing growth of a very unusual missionary organization The two sided mission organization comprising Wycliffe Bible Translators and the Summer Institute of Linguistics is a paradox that begs for an explanation The Summer Institute has long been doing laudable linguistic humanitarian work in many countries while Wycliffe has been one of the largest fastest growing and most controversial Christian missionary enterprises in the world In this wide ranging study Boone Aldridge a religious historian and twenty year insider at WBT SIL looks back at the organization s early years from its inception in the 1930s to the death of its visionary founder William Cameron Townsend in 1982 He situates the iconic institution within the evolving landscape of mid twentieth century evangelicalism examines its complex and occasionally confusing policies and investigates the factors that led despite persistent criticism from many sides to its remarkable rise to prominence The Social God Kenneth Leech, 2003-10-28 The central theme of The Social God is the belief that God is social and that both Christian prayer and Christian social action are rooted in the nature of God

Christian action in the fields of social justice and the political arena is rooted in Christian doctrine The Social God stresses the essential unity of doctrine and action of prayer and politics examining the Christian understanding of God and his relationship with the world Kenneth Leech emphasizes the centrality of the Incarnation and reveals the other aspects of Christian spirituality the dangers of a new fascism and the need for a renewal of Christian theology Concluding
