Ministry Of Love A Handbook For Visiting The Aged:

Ministry of Love Stephen V. Doughty, 1984 Walking on Holy Ground Dr. Antoinette Pinto-Sequeira, 2014-04-15
Walking On Holy Ground With Persons Suffering From The Alzheimer s Disease explores the sacredness of the Alzheimer s patients as well as draws the attention of clergy and laymen alike to acknowledge the sanctity of ministering to those suffering with the Alzheimer s disease It is important to recognize the sacredness of man and as such to value his human dignity We must respect and revere everyone we encounter daily irrespective of health conditions and their caste color or creed This maxim of reverencing the sacredness in all persons is the crux of this book This book will help you to minister fruitfully to the Alzheimer s patients and to address their yearning for God and simultaneously provide them with spiritual sustenance This book will undergird the prevalent traditional cognitive pastoral care ministry and help to appropriately meet the spiritual need of these non cognitive patients Today's Parish , 1986 The Publishers Weekly , 1972 Pastoral Responses to Older Adults and Their Families Vivienne S. Pierce, 1992 This comprehensive bibliography lists more than 700 books journal articles and dissertations on religion and aging The bulk of the material is from the Jewish and Christian traditions However the bibliography also treats writings from other faiths Answering Love's Call Stephen V. Doughty, 1986 The Cumulative Book Index , 1985 A world list of books in the English language The Essential Guide to Religious Traditions and Spirituality for Health Care Providers Steven Jeffers, Michael E Nelson, Vern Barnett, Michael C Brannigan, 2012-12-17 This extraordinary compendium of religious traditions is invaluable to all healthcare providers The user friendly resource contains specific and detailed information on faith traditions vital for providing optimal spiritual care in a clinical setting A series of inspirational introductory chapters promote the importance of spiritual well being as

Hymns We Love Leader's Guide Steve Cramer, Pippa Cramer, 2023-08-01 Leader s Guide for those leading this evangelistic course that shares the good news of Jesus with elderly people by exploring the Christian beliefs expressed in some of the nation s best loved hymns Older adults are the fastest growing age demographic across the Western world and yet there are few materials to support churches who want to help this older generation hear about God s love Hymns We Love aims to fill that gap It is a gentle outreach program which uses well loved hymns to share the good news of Jesus and key truths about God s character in an accessible way Many in this generation have grown up singing these hymns at school church or Sunday school and they have therefore proved to be a non threatening and accessible way to connect with seniors and help them to engage with the gospel The series comprises five video sessions Each one tells the story of the hymn writer how the hymn came to be and the Christian message behind it Across the five sessions Hymns We Love will help bring the core truths of the Christian story alive in a way that is gentle warm and clear The video sessions also feature beautiful renditions of the hymns filmed in a historic English village church along with testimonies and prayers There are also three introductory sessions for Christmas and for Easter and a third which can be used at any time of the year This Leader s Guide will equip you to lead this enjoyable ministry outreach program that reaches out to the older people in your community

Minister's Prayer Book Mary Jane Haemig,Chris Halverson,Robb Harrell,2020-02-04 Since it first appeared in print in 1959 John Doberstein's Minister's Prayer Book has been a devotional classic among Lutheran pastors. Written by a pastor for other pastors, Doberstein's work recognizes the need for the pastor to drink from a well of rich resources to sustain the spiritual vitality needed to serve faithfully in parish ministry. The fact that this manual of devotion is still available more than fifty years later is a testament to the timelessness of the collection Doberstein gathered as well as to his own pastoral acumen. Other than a minor revision made in 1986 by Philip Pfatteicher to update the prayers, there has been no attempt to bring fresh material to Doberstein's work, no attempt to update it for a new generation. Until now. This revised edition recognizes the increasingly diverse face of clergy. New resources, prayers and readings written by women, people of color, and Christians from around the world give the collection a broader appeal. The beauty of the Minister's Prayer Book is its intentional re-centering of the pastor's calling on word and sacrament, on pastoral care and on being fully present and engaged in the lives of God's people.

British Film Noir Guide Michael F. Keaney, 2011-01-05. This work presents 369 British films produced between 1937 and 1964 that embody many of the same filmic qualities as those black films made in the United States during the classic film noir era. This reference work makes a case for the inclusion of the British films in the film noir canon, which is still considered by some to be an exclusively American inventory. In the book's main section, the following information is presented for each film: a quote from the film, the title and release date, a rating based on the five star system, the production company, director, cinematographer, screenwriter, and main performers, and a plot synopsis with author commentary. Appendices categorize films by rating, release date, director, and cinematographer, and also provide a noir and non-noir breakdown of the 47 films presented on the Edgar Wallace Mystery Theatre, a 1960s British television series that was also shown in the United States.
