Bean, Virginia A. Chappell, Alice M. Gillam, 2002 Reading Rhetorically is an aims based rhetoric reader that teaches students how to read rhetorically and to write about what they have read with rhetorical insight The collection which organizes its selections by rhetorical aims or purposes offers readings for rhetorical analysis so that students can apply rhetorical processes in their own writing Two important features distinguish this reader from others 1 emphasis on reading as an interactive process of composing meaning and 2 emphasis on academic writing as a process in which writers engage with other texts Reading Rhetorically teaches students how to see texts positioned in a conversation with other texts how to recognize their bias or perspective and how to analyze texts for both content and method Reading, Writing, and Rewriting William T.
