Memorializing Pearl Harbor Geoffrey M. White, 2016-03-31 Memorializing Pearl Harbor examines the challenge of representing history at the site of the attack that brought America into World War II Analyzing moments in which history is re presented in commemorative events documentary films museum design and educational programming Geoffrey M White shows that the memorial to the Pearl Harbor bombing is not a fixed or singular institution Rather it has become a site in which many histories are performed validated and challenged In addition to valorizing military service and sacrifice the memorial has become a place where Japanese veterans have come to seek recognition and reconciliation where Japanese Americans have sought to correct narratives of racial mistrust and where Native Hawaiians have challenged their ongoing erasure from their own land Drawing on extended ethnographic fieldwork White maps these struggles onto larger controversies about public history museum practices and national memory

Reader s Digest In this the first memoir by a USS Arizona sailor Donald Stratton delivers an inspiring and unforgettable eyewitness account of the Pearl Harbor attack and his remarkable return to the fight At 8 10 a m on December 7 1941 Seaman First Class Donald Stratton was consumed by an inferno A million pounds of explosives had detonated beneath his battle station aboard the USS Arizona barely fifteen minutes into Japan s surprise attack on American forces at Pearl Harbor Near death and burned across two thirds of his body Don a nineteen year old Nebraskan who had been steeled by the Great Depression and Dust Bowl summoned the will to haul himself hand over hand across a rope tethered to a neighboring vessel Forty five feet below the harbor s flaming oil slick water boiled with enemy bullets all around him the world tore itself apart
In this extraordinary never before told eyewitness account of the Pearl Harbor attack the only memoir ever written by a survivor of the USS Arizona ninety four year old veteran Donald Stratton finally shares his unforgettable personal tale of bravery and survival on December 7 1941 his harrowing recovery and his inspiring determination to return to the fight Don and four other sailors made it safely across the same line that morning a small miracle on a day that claimed the lives of 1 177 of their Arizona shipmates approximately half the American fatalities at Pearl Harbor Sent to military hospitals for a year Don refused doctors advice to amputate his limbs and battled to relearn how to walk The U S Navy gave him a medical discharge believing he would never again be fit for service but Don had unfinished business In June 1944 he sailed back into the teeth of the Pacific War on a destroyer destined for combat in the crucial battles of Leyte Gulf Luzon and Okinawa thus earning the distinction of having been present for the opening shots and the final major battle of America s Second World
