Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom, 2022-11-21 In Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom synthesizes and interprets the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from medieval to modern times. The true subject of the book is making sense of the individual's relationship with light rather than the investigation of light's essential nature while telling the story of light seducing individuals from the Middle Ages to our modern times. Consequently it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light optical science but rather with subjective reactions as reflected in art architecture and literature. Instead of its evolution this book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light's character. No individual experience of light being truer than any other.

Foxe's 'Book of Martyrs' and Early Modern Print Culture John N. King, 2006-10-12 This book was first published in 2006. Second only to the Bible and Book of Common Prayer John Foxe's Acts and Monuments known as the Book of Martyrs was the most influential book published in England during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. The most complex and best illustrated English book of its time it recounted in detail the experiences of hundreds of people who were burned alive for their religious beliefs. John N. King offers the most comprehensive investigation yet of the compilation printing publication illustration and reception of the Book of Martyrs. He charts its reception across different editions by learned and unlearned sympathetic and antagonistic readers. The many illustrations included here introduce readers to the visual features of early printed books and general printing practices both in England and continental Europe and enhance this important contribution to early modern literary studies cultural and religious history and the history of the Book.

Artemisia Gentileschi and the Business of Art Christopher R. Marshall, 2024-06-11 A new account of the renowned Baroque painter revealing how her astute professional decisions shaped her career style and legacy. Art has long been viewed as a calling a quasi religious vocation that drives artists to seek answers to humanity's deepest questions. Yet the art world is a risky competitive business that requires artists to make strategic decisions especially if the artist is a woman. In Artemisia Gentileschi and the Business of Art Christopher Marshall presents a new account of the life work and legacy of the Italian Baroque painter revealing how she built a successful four decade career in a male dominated field and how her business acumen has even influenced the resurrection of her reputation today when she has been transformed from a footnote of art history to a globally famous artist and feminist icon. Combining the most recent research with detailed analyses of newly attributed paintings the book highlights the business considerations behind Gentileschi's development of a trademark style as she marketed herself to the public across a range of Italian artistic centers The disguised self portraits in her early Florentine paintings are reevaluated as an effort to make a celebrity brand of her own image And challenging the common perception that Gentileschi's only masterpieces are her early Caravaggesque paintings the book emphasizes the importance of her neglected late Neapolitan works which are reinterpreted as innovative responses to the conventional practices of Baroque workshops Artemisia Gentileschi and the Business of Art shows that Gentileschi's remarkable success as a painter was due not only to her enormous talent but also to her ability to respond creatively to the continuously evolving trends and challenges of the Italian Baroque art world Orazio and Artemisia Gentileschi [published to Accompany the Exhibition Held at the Museo Del Palazzo Di Venezia, Rome, 15 October - 6 January 2002 ; the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, 14 February - 12 May 2002 ; the Saint Louis Art Museum, 15 June - 15 September 2002 Keith Christiansen, Judith Walker Mann, Orazio Gentileschi, Artemisia Gentileschi, 2001 This beautiful book presents the work of these two painters exploring the artistic development of each comparing their achievements and showing how both were influenced by their times and the milieus in which they worked Arts and Cultural Programming Douglas Emerson Blandy, 2008 The first section of this book is designed to provide an overview of arts and cultural programmes and programme theory while the second contains various theoretical perspectives related to the management of programmes audience development etc The last section invites experts to share successful arts programmes with the readers Bibliographie D'histoire de L'art, 1991

"Faith, Gender and the Senses in Italian Renaissance and Baroque Art " Erin E. Benay, 2017-07-05 Taking the Noli me tangere and Doubting Thomas episodes as a focal point this study examines how visual representations of two of the most compelling and related Christian stories engaged with changing devotional and cultural ideals in Renaissance and Baroque Italy This book reconsiders depictions of the ambiguous encounter of Mary Magdalene and Christ in the garden John 20 11 19 known as the Noli me tangere and that of Christ's post Resurrection appearance to Thomas John 20 24 29 the Doubting Thomas as manifestations of complex theological and art theoretical milieus By focusing on key artistic monuments of the Italian Renaissance and Baroque periods the authors demonstrate a relationship between the rise of skeptical philosophy and empirical science and the efficacy of the senses in the construction of belief Further the authors elucidate the differing representational strategies employed by artists to depict touch and the ways in which these strategies were shaped by gender social class and educational level Indeed over time St Thomas became an increasingly public and therefore masculine symbol of devotional verification juridical inquiry and empirical investigation while St Mary Magdalene provided a more private model for pious women celebrating mostly behind closed doors the privileged and active participation of women in the faith The authors rely on primary source material paintings sculptures religious tracts hagiography popular sermons and new documentary evidence By reuniting their visual examples with important often little known textual sources the authors reveal a complex relationship between visual imagery the senses contemporary attitudes toward gender and the shaping of belief Further they add greater nuance to our understanding of the relationship between popular piety and the visual culture of the period Sanctifying the Name of God Jeremy Cohen,2013-03-26 How are martyrs made and how do the memories of martyrs express nourish and mold the ideals of the community Sanctifying the Name of God wrestles with these questions against the background of the massacres of Jews in the Rhineland during the outbreak of the First Crusade Marking the first extensive wave of anti Jewish violence in medieval Christian Europe these Persecutions of 1096 exerted a profound influence on the course of European Jewish history When the crusaders demanded that Jews choose between Christianity and death many opted for baptism Many others however chose to die as Jews rather than to live as Christians and of these many actually inflicted death upon themselves and their loved ones Stories of their self sacrifice ushered the Jewish ideal of martyrdom kiddush ha Shem the sanctification of God s holy name into a new phase conditioning the collective memory and mindset of Ashkenazic Jewry for centuries to come during the Holocaust and even today The Jewish survivors of 1096 memorialized the victims as martyrs as they rebuilt their communities during the decades following the Crusade Three twelfth century Hebrew chronicles of the persecutions preserve their memories of martyrdom and self sacrifice tales fraught with symbolic meaning that constitute one of the earliest Jewish attempts at local contemporary historiography Reading and analyzing these stories through the prism of Jewish and Christian religious and literary traditions Jeremy Cohen shows how these persecution chronicles reveal much more about the storytellers the martyrologists than about the martyrs themselves While they extol the glorious heroism of the martyrs they also air the doubts guilt and conflicts of those who by submitting temporarily to the Christian crusaders survived Bring on the Books for Everybody Jim Collins,2010-06-30 A look at how technology and literary visual and consumer cultures have combined over the past two decades to transform a once solitary print based experience into an exuberantly social activity Rethinking the Novel/Film Debate Kamilla Elliott,2003-08-07 Sample Text International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature TheInternational Who's Who of Authors and Writersoffers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971 Socially Engaged Art in Contemporary China Meiqin Wang,2019-03-04 This book provides an in depth and thematic analysis of socially engaged art in Mainland China exploring its critical responses to and creative interventions in China s top
