The Power of Revival Dongjin Park, 2023-11-08 Lloyd Jones s Reformed doctrine of Spirit baptism The Welsh minister Martyn Lloyd Jones 1899 1981 was one of the most influential preachers of the twentieth century His preaching was grounded in his view on the baptism of the Holy Spirit but his pneumatology is often seen as a departure from his Reformed heritage In The Power of Revival Dongjin Park explores how Lloyd Jones s preaching was kindled by his distinctly Reformed view of Spirit baptism By tracing Lloyd Jones s writings and sources Park shows how Lloyd Jones s theology of Spirit baptism was less an embrace of charismatic and Pentecostal theology than a reappropriation of Puritan emphasis on experiential faith Lloyd Jones s revivalistic urgency fueled by the Spirit s power to ignite preaching and holy living found its spark in Calvinistic revivalism The Power of Revival sheds light on Lloyd Jones and Reformed theology and encourages readers to follow his example of relying on the Spirit

Payne, 2006-06-01 This study offers a critical analysis of J I Packer s theology of the Christian life Packer has achieved international acclaim and wielded widespread influence within evangelicalism for more than three decades particularly through his writings on the doctrine of sanctification His approach to sanctification is examined in light of the theological anthropology and theological method that constitute its unique structure and assumptions J I Packer has been one of the most recognized evangelical theologians of the late twentieth century Among his theological passions is anchoring the Christian life in the legacy of Reformed theology particularly that expressed by seventeenth century English Puritanism Yet his treatment of the doctrine of sanctification is shaped by two other influences theological anthropology and theological method This hermeneutical exploration of Packer s treatment of sanctification offers fresh insight into his thought and demonstrates the often unnoticed impact of theological anthropology and theological method within evangelical theology

Deep Preaching J. Kent Edwards,2009 J Kent Edwards recalls a story that late pastor J Vernon McGee told about seeing children in South Africa playing a game of marbles in the dust with real diamonds The precious stones were being handled with no regard for their true worth Edwards fears the same thing happens today when preachers offer Scriptural truth to listeners without being completely overwhelmed by its greatness themselves in the process Deep Preaching is his call to rethink preaching Edwards helps preachers learn to preach the word in ways that will powerfully change the lives of hearers He contends that sermons need not settle comfortably on the lives of the listeners like dust on a coffee table He encourages preachers to join him in casting off the lines that moor their ministries to the status quo and make every effort to steer their preaching out of the comfortable shallows He urges them to preach deep sermons rather than superficial ones moving beyond the yawn inspiring to the awe inspiring from the trite to the transforming
