Courey,2015-02-26 Global Pentecostalism is a twenty first century phenomenon Yet in North America where the movement was born it has stalled Courey uncovers the cause of this plateau in the triumphalism that is characteristic of both North American Protestantism and Pentecostalism Through the identification of parallels between Martin Luther and contemporary Pentecostals Courey detects in Luther's Theology of the Cross a potent remedy for this tension Utilising this insight Courey reflects on other faith traditions and provides a counterpoint to the triumphalism that inhibits the development of Pentecostalism in North America and around the world This work comprises of three parts The first is historical charting the antecedents and development of Pentecostal triumphalism The second is an experiment in historical theology seeking basic resonances between Luther and early Pentecostals and examining the Theology of the Cross as a means of probing Pentecostalism The final section is an effort in constructive theology applying the theologia crucis to some of the central aspects of Pentecostalism

Handbook of Chinese Mythology Lihui Yang, Deming An, 2008 Compiled from ancient and scattered texts and based on groundbreaking new research Handbook of Chinese Mythology is the most comprehensive English language work on the subject ever written from an exclusively Chinese perspective This work focuses on the Han Chinese people but ranges across the full spectrum of ancient and modern China showing how key myths endured and evolved over time A quick reference section covers all major deities spirits and demigods as well as important places mythical animals and plants and related items In Quest of the Historical Adam William Lane Craig,2021-09-28 Was Adam a real historical person If so who was he and when did he live William Lane Craig sets out to answer these questions through a biblical and scientific investigation He begins with an inquiry into the genre of Genesis 1 11 determining that it can most plausibly be classified as mytho history a narrative with both literary and historical value He then moves into the New Testament where he examines references to Adam in the words of Jesus and the writings of Paul ultimately concluding that the entire Bible considers Adam the historical progenitor of the human race a position that must therefore be accepted as a premise for Christians who take seriously the inspired truth of Scripture Working from that foundation of biblical truth Craig embarks upon an interdisciplinary survey of scientific evidence to determine where Adam could be most plausibly located in the evolutionary history of humankind ultimately determining that Adam lived between 750 000 and 1 000 000 years ago as a member of the archaic human species Homo heidelbergensis He concludes by reflecting theologically on his findings and asking what all this might mean for us as human beings created in the image of God literally descended from a common ancestor albeit one who lived in the remote past

The Power of Language in the Making of International Law Stephane Beaulac,2004-04-01 The purpose of this book is to enter into the history of the mental social phenomena that are the word sovereignty and the myth of Westphalia Given the circularity of language the project proposes to examine the reality creating role of language as an organic instrument of social power within humanity In semiotic terms the complex structures of words and also myths form part of sign systems in which they can both represent and create reality These are the passive and active functions of language which explain that words and myths not only represent and describe reality but may also play a leading part in creating and transforming reality thus demonstrating and being used to carry fabulous power within humanity The Peace of Westphalia is analysed to show that in spite of what actually took place in 1648 Westphalia has had an incredible social effect in international law standing for the proposition that it signalled the beginning of a new era based on state sovereignty However it is argued that Westphalia constitutes a myth an aetiological myth which has provided a way for society to explain itself to itself that is a way for international society to explain its genesis to itself As regards sovereignty it is shown that Jean Bodin introduced the word in Six Livres for the purpose of having the French ruler enjoy supreme power in the hierarchical organisation structure of society This is the original creative and transforming social effect on the shared consciousness of humanity for which the linguistic sign must be credited which has continued unaltered to this day With respect to Droit des Gens it is demonstrated that Emer de Vattel utilised and actually changed the reality associated with sovereignty also for a specific reason namely to carry out its externalisation the ruling entity was now to enjoy exclusive power to govern which entailed being the sole representative of the people both internally and externally and also meant that it could not be submitted to any foreign state or to any higher law externally Vattel's use of the word has had an extraordinary effect on the shared consciousness of society including that of the emerging international society which is still very much present today These two archetype cases in which sovereignty developed show how this word has really had two paradigms over the years that is it has represented and created the two distinct realities of the internal and the international
