Beyond Cutting Edge? Paul C. Heidebrecht, 2014-03-10 A quick scan of any newsstand is enough to confirm the widespread preoccupation with technological change As a myriad of articles and advertisements demonstrate not only are we preoccupied with technology but we are bombarded with numerous reminders that the cutting edge is in constant motion Most often the underlying assumption of Christians is that we have no choice but to find ways to cope with the latest and greatest Indeed it is often assumed that the church has no choice but to find ways to cope with its new technological context This book does not make the same assumptions Building on the work of Mennonite theologian John Howard Yoder it argues that the practices of the church make it possible for Christians to conscientiously engage technology This happens when we recognize that marks of the church such as patience vulnerability and servanthood can put technological ideals such as speed control and efficiency in their proper place In the course of grappling with three examples of morally formative technologies automobiles genetically modified food and the Internet this book goes beyond Yoder's thought by emphasizing that the church also plays a crucial role in our moral formation

Building Bridges of Time, Places, and People: Volume II J. Marc. Merrill, 2012-06-28 From Chapter 5 By a quirk of fate says Darcie Conner Johnston the eruption of Mt Vesuvius in 79 AD caught Pompeii at a time of great spiritual change As a gateway south and east to Greece and Egypt and the Eurasian landmass beyond the city was heir to a panoply of faiths A host of foreign gods had begun to usurp the positions of the venerable Olympian deities and the imperial Roman pantheon Christians were likely to have been here as well though the evidence of their presence is sketchy Page 71 of Pompeii The Vanished City Besides the evidence that has already been presented more remains to demonstrate that once again the accepted historical point of view is incorrect For example This second volume of Building Bridges of Time Places and People presents the overwhelming evidence that some of the most prominent leaders of the New Testament Church left the lands of Judea and Galilee when war between Rome and the Jews seemed certain and they settled in Pompeii and Herculaneum These leaders included Simon Peter Paul Luke and John Mark the author of The Gospel of Mark They were accompanied by converts such as Cornelius the centurion who was the first Gentile to be baptized and by the mother of Christ This volume also investigates the town of Sepphoris in Galilee and makes a compelling case for the claim that the Messiah of the New Testament grew up there rather than in Nazareth his identity hidden until he began his ministry at the age of 30
