The Embattled Lyric Nathaniel Tarn, 2007 This book has two main subjects which are interwoven the attitudes of selected poets including Neruda Rilke Breton Celan and Artaud to the primitive and the archaic studied from an anthropologist's viewpoint and a model of the processes whereby poetry is produced and received built on the author's successful careers as both poet and anthropologist The book includes detailed biographical information about how Tarn went from being a French to an English to an American poet It also reveals the effect of a double career and of these moves on a unique body of poetry and theoretical work An extremely substantial interview serving also as an introduction to and discussion of the essays demonstrates that there is nothing like this work to be found elsewhere
