Sea Of Faith Islam And Christianity In The Medieval Mediterranean World:

Sea of Faith Stephen O'Shea, 2007-05-29 The author of The Perfect Heresy traces the parallel evolution of two powerful religions Christianity and Islam in the medieval Mediterranean world describing their changing relationship disastrous clashes and periods of peaceful co existence and mutual enrichment in light of the conflict of today Reprint Sea of Faith Stephen O'Shea, 2009-05-26 In Sea of Faith O Shea chronicles both the meeting of minds and the collisions of armies that marked the interaction of Cross and Crescent in the Middle Ages the better to understand their apparently intractable conflict today For all the great and everlasting moments of cultural interchange and tolerance in Cordoba Palermo Constantinople the ultimate geography of belief was decided on the battlefield O Shea vividly recounts seven pivotal battles between the forces of Christianity and Islam that shaped the Mediterranean world from the loss of the Christian Middle East to the Muslims at Yarmuk Turkey in 636 to the stemming of the seemingly unstoppable Ottoman tide at Malta in 1565 In between the battles raged round the Mediterranean from Poitiers in France and Hattin in the Holy Land during the height of the Crusades to the famed contest for Constantinople in 1453 that signaled the end of Byzantium As much as the armies were motivated by belief their exploits were inspired by leaders such as Charles Martel Saladin and Mehmet II whose stirring feats were sometimes accompanied by unexpected changes of heart The Rowman & Littlefield Handbook of Christianity in the Middle East Mitri Raheb, Mark A. Lamport, 2020-12-15 This work represents the current and most relevant content on the studies of how Christianity has fared in the ancient home of its founder and birth Much has been written about Christianity and how it has survived since its migration out of its homeland but this comprehensive reference work reassesses the geographic and demographic impact of the dramatic changes in this perennially combustible world region The Rowman Littlefield Handbook of Christianity in the Middle East also spans the historical socio political and contemporary settings of the region and importantly describes the interactions that Christianity has had with other major minor religions in the region History's Greatest Wars Joseph Cummins, 2011-05-01 A centuries spanning study of twenty five pivotal wars that shaped world history from the Greco Persian War to the Soviet Afghan War Driving and dispersing peoples across the globe giving birth to and destroying great empires transforming cultures and determining systems of government warfare as much as anything else has fashioned our world History's Greatest Wars The Epic Conflicts that Shaped Our Modern World highlights pivotal victories that changed nations even entire continents forever and charts the astonishingly rapid evolution of warfare It delineates defining moments in the development of political philosophies as well as the scientific innovations that yielded the machine gun the tank and the atom bomb From the Greco Persian Wars that began in 500 BCE to the Vietnam War and beyond it vividly renders the key victories that turned the tide of war and recounts the heroism of armies and individuals Yet it does not shy away from showing the acts of savagery that characterize much warfare the slaughters and massacres History's Greatest Wars covers twenty five of the most important and thunderous wars wars that shook the world and took part in forming the nations that today we call home The best and worst of humanity is on display here in a collection that will act as a perfect primer for novices while offering seasoned history readers new perspectives on many famous and some not so well known conflicts Sweeping in its scope yet intimate in its insights into the motivations of politicians strategists commanders and soldiers this is a collection that will enhance your understanding of the modern world and your own place in it

God's Crucible: Islam and the Making of Europe, 570-1215 David Levering Lewis, 2009-01-12 From the two time Pulitzer Prize winning author God's Crucible brings to life a furiously complex age New York Times Book Review Resonating as profoundly today as when it was first published to widespread critical acclaim a decade ago God's Crucible is a bold portrait of Islamic Spain and the birth of modern Europe from one of our greatest historians David Levering Lewis's narrative filled with accounts of some of the most epic battles in world history reveals how cosmopolitan Muslim al Andalus flourished a beacon of cooperation and tolerance while proto Europe floundered in opposition to Islam making virtues out of hereditary aristocracy religious intolerance perpetual war and slavery This masterful history begins with the fall of the Persian and Roman empires followed by the rise of the prophet Muhammad and five centuries of engagement between the Muslim imperium and an emerging Europe Essential and urgent God's Crucible underscores the importance of these early world altering events whose influence remains as current as today's headlines

Islam Robert Crotty, Terence Lovat, 2016-06-30 Terrorism is the threat of the age or so we are told and inevitably associated with it is the word Islam The notion of the Muslim terrorist has become a colloquialism in Western media Interestingly in all the history books about the Second World War the phrase Christian fascist is rarely seen in spite of the fact that skewed Christian theologies were used liberally by the Nazis to further their hatred This points to a blind spot in Western understanding about the ways in which religious and non religious ideology can be mutilated to serve hateful ends We think we see it in Islam but we can't see it in ourselves This book is dedicated to uncovering the many understandings of Islam we lack and the many misunderstandings we need to overcome
