activity in the world and the first section of the book examines ways in which people are aware of God as both a creative and immanent presence in life The signs of God are not philosophical proofs but empirical realities accessible to all people In the second section the biblical responses to suffering in the world are explored through both Old and New Testaments In the third section the writings of two modern apologists C S Lewis and Philip Yancey are assessed and then finally there is a chapter of interviews with people who have known suffering in their lives
