Sea Power in its Relations to the War of 1812 Alfred Thayer Mahan, 1968 Sea Power in its Relations to the War of 1812 II A. T. Mahan, 2016-08-16 That much of Great Britain's action was unjustifiable and at times even monstrous regarded in itself alone must be admitted but we shall ill comprehend the necessity of preparation for war if we neglect to note the pressure of emergency of deadly peril upon a state or if we fail to recognize that traditional habits of thought constitute with nations as with individuals a compulsive moral force which an opponent can control only by the display of adequate physical power Such to the British people was the conviction of their right and need to compel the service of their native seamen wherever found on the high seas The conclusion of the writer is that at a very early stage of the French Revolutionary Wars the United States should have obeyed Washington's warnings to prepare for war and to build a navy and that thus prepared instead of placing reliance upon a system of commercial restrictions war should have been declared not later than 1807 when the news of Jena and of Great Britain's refusal to relinquish her practice of impressing from American ships became known almost coincidentally But this conclusion is perfectly compatible with a recognition of the desperate character of the strife that Great Britain was waging that she could not disengage herself from it Napoleon being what he was and that the methods which she pursued did cause the Emperor's downfall and her own deliverance although they were invasions of just rights to which the United States should not have submitted

T. Mahan,2016-08-08 The present work concludes the series of The Influence of Sea Power upon History as originally framed in the conception of the author In the previous volumes he has had the inspiring consciousness of regarding his subject as a positive and commanding element in the history of the world In the War of 1812 also the effect is real and dread enough but to his own country to the United States as a matter of national experience the lesson is rather that of the influence of a negative quantity upon national history The phrase scarcely lends itself to use as a title but it represents the truth which the author has endeavored to set forth though recognizing clearly that the victories on Lake Erie and Lake Champlain do illustrate in a distinguished manner his principal thesis the controlling influence upon events of naval power even when transferred to an inland body of fresh water The lesson there however was the same as in the larger fields of war heretofore treated Not by rambling operations or naval duels are wars decided but by force massed and handled in skilful combination It matters not that the particular force be small The art of war is the same throughout and may be illustrated as really though less conspicuously by a flotilla as by an armada by a corporal s guard or the three units of the Horatii as by a host of a hundred thousand vi The interest of the War of 1812 to Americans has commonly been felt to lie in the brilliant evidence of high professional tone and efficiency reached by their navy as shown by the single ship actions and by the two decisive victories achieved by little squadrons upon the

Mahan, 2019-09-15 Excerpt The interest of the War of 1812 to Americans has commonly been felt to lie in the brilliant evidence of high professional tone and efficiency reached by their navy as shown by the single ship actions and by the two decisive victories achieved by little squadrons upon the lakes Without in the least overlooking the permanent value of such examples and such traditions to the nation and to the military service which they illustrate it nevertheless appears to the writer that the effect may be even harmful to the people at large if it be permitted to conceal the deeply mortifying condition to which the country was reduced by parsimony in preparation or to obscure the lessons thence to be drawn for practical application now It is perhaps useless to quarrel with the tendency of mankind to turn its eyes from disagreeable subjects and to dwell complacently upon those which minister to self content We mostly read the newspapers in which we find our views reflected and dispense ourselves easily with the less pleasing occupation of seeing them roughly disputed but a writer on a subject of national importance may not thus exempt himself from the unpleasant features of his task      Sea Power in Its Relations to the War of 1812 Volume 1 A. Sea Power in Its Relations to the War of 1812 Volume 2 A. T. (Alfred Thayer) Mahan, 2018-08-14 Sea Power in its Relations to the War of 1812 Volume 2 by A T Alfred Thayer Mahan The squadron under Commodore William Bainbridge the third which sailed from the United States in October 1812 started nearly three weeks after the joint departure of Rodgers and Decatur It consisted of the Constitution and sloop of war Hornet then in Boston and of the Essex the only 32 gun frigate in the navy fitting for sea in the Delaware The original armament of the latter from which she derived her rate had been changed to forty 32 pounder carronades and six long twelves total forty six guns It is noticeable that this battery which ultimately contributed not merely to her capture but to her almost helplessness under the fire of an enemy able to maintain his distance out of carronade range was strongly objected to by Captain Porter On October 14 he applied to be transferred to the Adams giving as reasons my insuperable dislike to carronades and the bad sailing of the Essex which render her in my opinion the worst frigate in the service The request was not granted and Porter sailed in command of the ship on October 28 the two other vessels having left Boston on the 26th We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents
