Search For Reality The Art Of Documentary Filmmaking:

The Search for "reality" Michael Tobias, 1998 This ambitious book from author producer and director Michael Tobias draws together the voices of 40 renowned documentary filmmakers from around the world These contributors shed unique light on contemporary culture and aesthetics the filmmaker's commitment to the documentary form and the documentary production process from concept to marketplace They also probe provocative questions What is reality in a documentary Can and should there be objectivity in a documentary What is the role of social advocacy in a documentary How do new production technologies affect a documentary's message This is the first book that brings together an international roster of documentary filmmakers to speak about the very heart and soul of their art It should prove to be an invaluable guide for both professionals and students and will appeal to general filmgoers as well

American Documentary Filmmaking in the Digital Age Lucia Ricciardelli, 2014-11-20 American Documentary Filmmaking in the Digital Age examines the recent challenges to the conventions of realist documentary through the lens of war documentary films by Ken Burns Michael Moore and Errol Morris During the twentieth century the invention of new technologies of audiovisual representation such as cinema television video and digital media have transformed the modes of historical narration and with it forced historians to assess the impact of new visual technologies on the construction of history This book investigates the manner in which this contemporary Western crisis in historical narrative is produced by a larger epistemological shift in visual culture Ricciardelli uses the theme of war as depicted in these directors' films to focus her study and look at the models of national identity that Burns Morris and Moore shape through their depictions of US military actions She examines how postcolonial critiques of historicism and the advent of digitization have affected the narrative structure of documentary film and the shaping of historical consciousness through cinematic representation

The Documentary Makers David A. Goldsmith, 2003 A series of in their own words interviews with 15 directors whose work has in some way extended the boundary of the documentary They constitute a tiny proportion of those working in the field but they represent the state of the documentary across the world from the limited resources of China's only independent director with no access to his nation's television to the big budget series that attract tens of millions of American viewers Some will only work on film with all its paraphernalia of moviemaking while others insist on working alone with nothing more than a Handicam Some question even abhor the use of commentary others wouldn't dream of doing without Some work by the rules of cinema verite and some use dramatization while still labeling their work documentary Regardless of the where and the how they all seek to reproduce reality whatever that might be Book jacket

Documentaries Andy Glynne, 2008-03-01 Currently one of the most popular film and TV genres due to the success of Michael Moore's Supersize Me and March of the Penguins documentaries and the process of creating them are subjected to scrutiny in this guide which comes with a bonus DVD featuring three award winning documentaries discussed as case studies Fans of the genre will enjoy a history of the art form and interviews with industry insiders and award winning filmmakers who contribute their tips tricks and advice Aspiring filmmakers will find advice covering the whole production process from developing a concept to marketing and distribution Details on the full range of current film festivals are also included

D.A. Pennebaker Keith Beattie, 2011-10-15 This volume is the first book length study of the extensive career and prolific works of D A Pennebaker one of the pioneers of direct cinema a documentary form that emphasizes observation and a straightforward portrayal of events With a career spanning decades Pennebaker s many projects have included avant garde experiments Daybreak Express ground breaking television documentaries Primary celebrity films Dont Look Back concert films Monterey Pop and innovative fusions of documentary and fiction Maidstone Exploring the concept of performing the real Keith Beattie interprets Pennebaker s films as performances in which the act of filming is in itself a performative transgression of the norms of purely observational documentary He examines the ways in which Pennebaker s presentation of unscripted everyday performances is informed by connections between documentary filmmaking and other experimental movements such as the New American Cinema Through his collaborations with such various artists as Richard Leacock Shirley Clarke Norman Mailer and Jean Luc Godard Pennebaker has continually reworked and redefined the forms of documentary filmmaking This book also includes a recent interview with the director and a full filmography

Culture, Trauma, and Conflict Nico Carpentier, 2015-06-18 War was pervasive in the 20th century and the 21st century seems to hold little promise of improvement It remains one of the world's most destructive forces which on a daily basis touches the lives of millions of people To increase an understanding of the pervasiveness and destructiveness of the institution of war all possible frameworks of knowledge must be mobilized Cultural War Studies has an important role to play in adding to this knowledge by putting the critical vocabulary of

Crafting Contemporary Documentaries and Docuseries for Global Screens Phoebe Hart, 2024-01-08 This book explores the industrial and personal challenges faced by filmmakers in bringing the current worldwide craze for documentary films and series to screens small and large Utilizing a number of case studies drawn from in depth interviews with acclaimed documentary directors producers and screenwriters from around the world Phoebe Hart offers a thematic analysis to reveal the risks and opportunities for practitioners Hart examines these themes in the context of current scholarship to provide insight into the modes and methods of making factual screen content as she engages with the documentary form and the marking of it acquisition of mastery and inspiration and specific rituals and habits of practice From the unique vantage point of being a pracademic that is being both a successful documentary filmmaker and a recognized screen researcher and teacher Hart ultimately argues for greater support of filmmakers and pursuit of a deeper understanding of creative processes

Trans Narratives Ana Horvat, Orly Lael Netzer, Sarah McRae, Julie Rak, 2021-09-30 Recently trans has taken on a number of important theoretical and critical meanings inside and outside the academy As a prefix trans can attach itself to other words to express or describe movement and change as it does in the terms transnational or transmedia Trans is also an adjective when it is part of a word that signifies an identity or expression Trans has worked as an adjective to destabilize established ideas about gender as it makes new senses of what gender can mean for trans people Much of the study of life writing is about the study of identity and the possibilities for lives that stories of identity make possible In that spirit Trans Narratives trans transmedia transnational represents an opportunity for critical work about life writing by trans people to be featured as it seeks to interrogate the idea of trans in multiple registers bringing a prefix to the center of the current field of life writing studies It aims to understand through life writing and its theory what trans means when we talk about identities and bodies and to understand better what the critical terms transmedia and transnational can mean for the field of life writing The Chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Auto Biography Studies Michael Moore's Fahrenheit 9/11 Robert Brent Toplin,2006 Examines the development of Michael Moore s ideas and the evolution of his filmmaking then dissects Fahrenheit 9 11 and explores the many claims and disagreements about the movie s truthfulness This study shows that Michael Moore s film did more than shake up a nation Gus Van Sant Vincent LoBrutto,2010-06-16 This incisive book provides an in depth critical and biographical study of the artistic range of film director Gus Van Sant Arranged chronologically Gus Van Sant His Own Private Cinema provides a comprehensive overview of the life and art of this talented director covering his mainstream commercial and avant garde projects More than a biography the book examines Van Sant s incredibly diverse body of work exploring the influence of his open homosexuality of fine art literature and music and of the range of cinema styles to which he has been exposed Stressing Van Sant s wide ranging content genre style and cinematic presentation author Vincent LoBrutto details the filmmaker s autobiographical tendencies and how he uses the film craft literature popular music and fine arts to create his movies The book dissects ways in which each of his films reflects Van Sant s sexual orientation whether the individual film has a gay theme or not Because of its importance to Van Sant s films the book also offers a history of gay culture past and present covering its influence on art music theater and dance as well as community activism and prejudice Media Writing Craig Batty,Sandra Cain,2016-02-05 Now updated in a second edition this highly accessible and practical guide to media writing brings together a range of different professional contexts enabling students to develop a solid understanding of the practices that will enable them to excel in any media writing field today In chapters spanning print online and broadcast news magazines public relations advertising and screenwriting Batty and Cain outline the key theories concepts and tools for writing in each context exploring their distinctive styles and practices and also identifying their shared ideas and principles Packed with exercises case studies and career guidance this lively resource encourages students to engage with each form and hone transferable skills This insightful text is essential reading for students of journalism creative writing media studies and communication studies Shakespeare Without English Sukanta Chaudhuri,Chee Seng Lim,2006 Transcript of papers read out in the Seventh World Shakespeare Congress held at Valencia in 2001 Encountering Modernity Keyan G.
