the strange case that plunges him deep into the lives of a nearby Amish community With no apparent clues and a seemingly fruitless autopsy Angus is determined to uncover the truth behind the mysterious death Meanwhile local Weyport resident Caleb Townsend carries a secret of his own Torn between his Amish upbringing and his newfound freedom he stumbles upon a connection between the deceased and his distant sister Rachel who as it happens was the last person to see the chiropractor alive But when Rachel suddenly disappears from the very Amish community Caleb turned his back on matters become more complicated for both him and Angus As Caleb sets out to find his sister before Angus does confronting his past and his estranged family along the way Angus discovers there may be more to the case than meets the eye And as the facade of perfection slowly crumbles more victims turn up dead This suspenseful murder mystery will keep you guessing until the very end Caleb s Cross is book 3 in the Angus Reid Mysteries Series

The Temporal Horizon Karin Linton,1989 This dissertation studies the theme of time in Anne Tyler s fiction and centres specifically on how Jeremy Pauling in Celestial Navigation Justine Peck in Searching for Caleb Cody Tull in Dinner at the Homesick Restaurant and Macon Leary in The Accidental Tourist respond to the losses brought about by the passage of time The introduction establishes similarities between Tyler s emphasis on change the passage of time and reactions to change and Paul Fraisse s focus on temporally organized behaviour the three interrelated perspectives of the past the present and the future The temporal horizon is used in this dissertation as a key to interpreting the temporal awareness of Tyler s characters and their behaviour in adapting to change It is often memories of crises such as unexpected death or desertion which predominate the protagonist s temporal outlook at the expense of the present and the future protagonists is to free themselves from the past and discover a greater significance in the present and the future With the exception of Jeremy Pauling they finally succeed in altering the hold of the past and as a consequence of this shift of vision a better balance between their three temporal perspectives is achieved dissertation indicates that the majority of her protagonists in the end reach a moment of buoyancy when at least temporarily in control of time they apparently trust in the possibility of altering their situations Because of this anticipation they also modify their behaviour and take steps to give their futures a new direction While it may be an open question where the passage of time may lead them the thesis indicates that in many of Anne Tyler s novels the endings seem suggestive of affirmative change
