The Subject Approach to Information Antony Charles Foskett, 1996 The Internet and World Wide Web have made access to information easy but do not solve the problems of finding exactly what is wanted to the point of overwhelming the reader with information Since the first edition of this classic librarianship text appeared the development of computer technology has meant that the organization of information has become a hugely complex area This fifth edition places emphasis on the intellectual effort required to make meaningful use of the enormous amount of information now accessible to the searcher Fully revised and updated in comprehensive detail that includes bibliographies ample examples and quotations it focuses on information retrieval systems database access systems online searching and OPACs hypertext networked systems Foskett describes how we search for information by looking at the problems involved at the theoretical principles suggested as solutions and their practical realization as classification schemes lists of subject headings and thesauri Readership This influential text is widely acknowledged to be essential reading for all students of librarianship and information management and an invaluable reference tool for practising library and information professionals

Introduction to Cataloging and Classification Daniel N. Joudrey, Arlene G. Taylor, David P. Miller, 2015-09-29 A new edition of this best selling textbook reintroduces the topic of library cataloging from a fresh modern perspective Not many books merit an eleventh edition but this popular text does Newly updated Introduction to Cataloging and Classification provides an introduction to descriptive cataloging based on contemporary standards explaining the basic tenets to readers without previous experience as well as to those who merely want a better understanding of the process as it exists today The text opens with the foundations of cataloging then moves to specific details and subject matter such as Functional Requirements for Bibliographic Records FRBR Functional Requirements for Authority Data FRAD the International Cataloging Principles ICP and RDA Unlike other texts the book doesn't presume a close familiarity with the MARC bibliographic or authorities formats ALA's Anglo American Cataloging Rules 2nd Edition revised AACR2R or the International Standard Bibliographic Description ISBD Subject access to library materials is covered in sufficient depth to make the reader comfortable with the principles and practices of subject cataloging and classification In addition the book introduces MARC BIBFRAME and other approaches used to communicate and display bibliographic data Discussions of formatting presentation and administrative issues complete the book questions useful for review and study appear at the end of each chapter
