without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1850 edition Excerpt Not the less he breathed the odors That the dying leaves exhaled Thus upon the village common By the school boys he was found And the wise men in their wisdom Put him straightway into pound Then the sombre village crier Ringing loud his brazen bell Wandered down the street proclaiming There was an estray to sell And the curious country people Rich and poor and young and old Came in haste to see this wondrous Winged steed with mane of gold Thus the day passed and the evening Fell with vapors cold and dim But it brought no food nor shelter Brought no straw nor stall for him Patiently and still expectant Looked he through the wooden bars Saw the moon rise o'er the landscape Saw the tranquil patient stars Till at length the bell at midnight Sounded from its dark abode And from out a neighbouring farm yard Loud the cock Alectryon crowed Then with nostrils wide distended Breaking from his iron chain And unfolding far his pinions To those stars he soared again On the morrow when the village Woke to all its toil and care Lo the strange steed had departed And they knew not when nor where But they found upon the greensward Where his struggling hoofs had trod Pure and bright a fountain flowing From the hoof marks in the sod From that hour the fount unfailing Gladdens the whole region round Strengthening all who drink its waters While it soothes them with its sound

TEGNER S DEATH I Heard a voice that cried Balder the Beautiful Is dead is dead And through the misty air Passed like the mournful cry Of sunward sailing cranes I saw the pallid corpse Of the dead sun Borne through the Northern sky Blasts from Niffelheim Lifted the sheeted mists Around him as he passed And the voice for ever
