Season Of Shadows:

Season of Shadows Kum Ngong, 2018-11-09 In this wide ranging collection of forty three poems John Ngong Kum Ngong undertakes a critical and acerbic diagnosis of the socio political situation in postcolonial Africa through a deceptively simple aesthetically complex and ideologically intriguing style The multi faceted and interrelated motifs of shadows and seasons together with a plethora of literary devices such as paradox suspense metaphors allusions personification irony satire humour and contrast are the weapons through which the poet drives home his message The poems in this collection are not only politically correct but are also artistically profound Zuhmboshi Eric Nsuh PhD Lecturer Literary Critic and Political Analyst

A Season of Shadows K. W. Moak, 2012-08 In 1976 graduate student Adam Reardon s fiancée Lis and her children vanished Officially they died in a tragic house fire In reality they escaped the fire and worse through an impossible portal to another world The portal closed before Adam could follow he was nearly killed and survived only to have his incredible memories of that night dismissed as shock induced delusion For half his life Adam has suffered from nightmares and depression knowing the truth but gradually coming to accept that nothing can possibly be done about it Then twenty years after the fire extraordinary alarming things begin to happen Adam now a successful architect discovers proof of Lis survival and realizes he can not turn his back on the slim chance of finding her though it means losing everything he has Armed with a mysterious fragment of ancient high tech and aided by an old friend who also knows what really took place in 1976 Adam decides to try reopening the portal But others have their own sinister plans for it Unbeknownst to Adam events already underway will soon put him at the center of a long deferred battle that may well determine the fate of all Humanity
