Railway Lands Branch, 1916 The Homiletic Review , 1900 Intelligent Compassion: Feminist Critical Methodology in the Womens International League for Peace and Freedom Catia Cecilia Confortini, 2012-08-03 The Womens International League for Peace and Freedom WILPF has a unique role in post war peace activism It is the longest surviving international womens peace organization and one of the oldest peace organizations in the West Founded in 1915 when a group of women from neutral and belligerent nations in World War I met at The Hague to formulate proposals for ending the war WILPF sent delegations of women to several countries to plead for peace and their final resolutions are often credited with influencing Woodrow Wilsons 14 Points Today the organization counts several thousand members in 36 countries on five continents Since 1948 it has enjoyed consultative status with the UN and it was instrumental in bringing about recent United Nations Security Council Resolutions on Women Peace and Security Beginning in 1945 WILPF began identifying the limitations of its ideological foundations in relation to the international liberal order Catia Cecilia Confortini argues that this period ushered in a turn in the organizations policies and activism one that culminated in the mid 70s and served as an important antecedent to feminist activism that continues today In Intelligent Compassion she traces the organizations changing strategies and ideas over a thirty year period focusing on three key areas of its work disarmament decolonization and the conflict in Israel

Palestine By analyzing the shifting ideas and policies of the longest living international womens peace organization Intelligent Compassion finds answers to IR questions about the possibility of emancipatory agency in the theoretical methodology of women peace activists and the extent to which activists can transcend the prevailing practices rules and relations of their eras Pamphlet Series of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, Division of International Law ,1922 Where Pain Meets Peace Jana Hernandez,2017-11-27 As we contemplate our lives it is difficult to imagine that pain will be a piece of this beautiful puzzle called life a necessary component to becoming who we are meant to become Pain simply put is a part of the human experience Each of us will experience pain differently some will travel the ups and downs of life with ease while others remain in the valley until the view from the mountain fades to a distant memory It is easy to stand on mountain tops and experience gratitude and joy in the smallest things in life It is easy to pour our hearts out in prayer to a God that we know stands directly beside us It is in the valleys where pain breeds sorrow that we become lost and often question if God is even with us We are blinded to the truth that He remains with us in darkness illuminating its true beauty It is at this point that for many of us faith begins to fade and hope feels lost In the valley not only does He remain with us but He also shows us how to grow and how to experience true joy amid the pain we are guaranteed to experience The pain will not disappear but it will dissipate as the experience changes It is at this point that you will likely discover that your deepest pain will become something that you can be truly grateful for Whether mountain or valley the view remains the same breathtaking In the moments we are lost the Creator of the universe leaves us a message He surrounds us each day in nature Nature holds the answers to survive and thrive in our deepest pain the place where pain meets peace Justice of the Peace ,1870 Metropolitan Pulpit and Homiletic Monthly ,1900 Metropolitan Pulpit ,1900 Peace Handbooks Great Britain.
