The Healing Journey for Adult Children of Alcoholics Daryl E. Quick, 2009-11-21 I feel like people leave me abandoned all the time Sometimes I m so afraid for what seems like no reason I just don t seem to have any energy Why do the same thoughts keep racing through my mind I usually don t feel happy or sad If there isn t real excitement I feel bored I want to be close to people but I just never make it Do you see yourself in this list Children of alcoholic parents have suffered wounds that affect their lives for years to come They learn to protect themselves from the pattern of hurt that they have come to expect in life The results of such constant vigilance against pain can range from ulcers sleeplessness addictions depression and anger to a string of broken relationships But adult children of alcoholics can go through a healing journey that will help them recover from their painful past and be set free to live as God intended Daryl Quick takes readers step by step through new ways of feeling thinking and acting that will replace the ineffective patterns they have been locked into for years With moving stories and helpful exercises Quick shows how adult children of alcoholics can find hope and healing A book for those who want to recover from their past

Nissen, 2013-10-30 Curriculum and the Life Erratic The Geographic Cure lays bare the untold damage done to children who are forced to endure the toxic combination of fermented parenting as author Leslie Nissen has termed it and frequent family moves at the hands of alcoholic parents who perpetually seek the elusive Geographic Cure While such parents deceive themselves that in the next new place sobriety will prevail their children know better Alcoholics who chronically uproot their families for a fresh start usually carry along every reason to drink For the school age children of such cure seeking alcoholics the torment of life with a volatile unpredictable and chronically intoxicated parent is intensified by the anguish of being the new kid who changes schools at the whim of the parent Highly mobile children bearing an alarmingly long list of prior schools may be part of a group which Nissen calls Geographic Cure Children whose chances of finding help are nearly non-existent despite their acute need for care. The dilemma of this unique subset of Children of Alcoholics is examined via autobiographical psychoanalytic and fictional lenses. Nissen also recounts her own urge to hit the road when diagnosed with cancer and explores the Geographic Cure writ large, observing how the current testing frenzy and clamor for cures for low test scores dominate educational policy. Could teachers panic about accountability cause them to resent new students who appear at their classroom doors mid-year? Is education encumbered because at the hands of policy makers educators are working the Life Erratic?
