Seduction Deception Illusion Truth:

Seduction, Sophistry, and the Woman with the Rhetorical Figure Michelle Ballif, 2001 Ballif questions why the profession wants to retain these beliefs in the face of vociferous arguments from new rhetorics that the discipline no longer posits a foundational self or truth and in the face of the poststructuralist critique which has demonstrated that founding truth is always accomplished by first positing and then negating an other As an alternative to this negative and violent rhetorical process Ballif suggests a turn to sophistry as embodied in the figure of Woman one with the power to seduce us literally to lead astray from our truth and our demand for it BOOK JACKET

High Time to 'Lie' Low : A whimsical collection of truth, trickery, and everything in between Anurupa Acharya, 2025-10-09 From the whispered deceits that held royal courts together like fine embroidery to the grand lies that have toppled empires and rewritten history lying has never been a mere vice it is an art a performance a survival strategy Divine tricksters political puppeteers and everyday pretenders all share one common thread the lie dressed to the nines and ready for its cue High Time to Lie Low explores this rich tapestry of untruths from the serpent in Eden to the modern spin doctor from the flamboyant social faker to the charming con artist Here lies are not simply told they are curated performed even worshipped Each chapter peels back the layers of the human condition revealing how deception dances through mythology politics relationships and everyday etiquette Lies after all are not just obstacles to truth they are its most intimate companions They shape reality as much as facts do often more They are the spice in our conversations the scaffolding of diplomacy and the punchline of human folly So fasten your seatbelt and adjust your moral compass This isn't a sermon on virtue but a satirical safari through the jungle of human hypocrisy In the waltz between truth and falsehood High Time to Lie Low invites you to step onto the dance floor where nothing is quite as it seems and everything is just believable enough to be entertaining

Reading Simulacra M. W. Smith, 2001-09-06 Reading Simulacra analyzes the ways in which our culture has become fatally immersed in simulation Television the Internet virtual reality and other advancements in technology and information processing have brought about an order in which simulations and digital images permeate our experiences of the world so deeply that their distinctions from reality appear seamless Through a careful study of some of the most important postmodern theorists particularly Jean Baudrillard and Deleuze and Guattari this book puts forth two different communication strategies seduction and rupture for a world where the difference between what is real and what is simulated has disappeared In an attempt to discern meaning from this contemporary situation M W Smith examines a range of contemporary texts that have in the past resisted traditional analysis These include the O J Simpson trial Oliver Stone's Natural Born Killers Reese Williams's A Pair of Eyes Kathy Acker's Blood and Guts in High School and Don Quixote Clarence Major's My Amputations and Baudrillard's America all of which represent the obscenity of hypersignified existence

Thinking in Images Catherine Constable, 2019-07-25 Thinking in Images addresses the current crisis in film theory by offering a new methodology for interrelating theory and film texts Drawing on the groundbreaking work of Michele Le Doeuff the author argues that philosophy is reliant on socio cultural images such as the figures of the veiled woman the femme fatale and the seductress The author traces the key role played by such images of woman in the theorisations of beauty art and truth offered by Nietzsche and his successors Derrida Kofman and Baudrillard Importantly the recognition that images are crucial to theorising means that film images have the capacity to challenge and change previous theoretical models This is demonstrated by a case study of three films from the Dietrich Sternberg cycle The Scarlet Empress The Devil is a Woman and Shanghai Express The detailed readings focus on the ways in which Dietrich s glamorous characters challenge the theorisation of woman as a beautiful object thus offering new ways of conceptualising woman s role as the icon of beauty art and truth Realism, Deception, Illusion Melissa Lee Goldman,1998 The Ninth Hour Harrison
