Seed Remembers:

Seeds of Memory J. Richard Jacobs, 2021-07-10 SPACE once believed to be a vast and vacant void has been found in fact to be filled with all sorts of things things that roam freely and at random Our little spaceship Earth is no longer as secure as we once thought it to be There are clouds of dust and gas so hot that their mere passing would scour our little system of planets with a breath of death and destruction complete Clouds so massive that just their passing could throw all our little planets from of their peaceful orbits into the deep cold of a sunless darkness and fling our star out and on its way to being one of the eternal roamers of our galaxy or even throw it into an intergalactic journey to who knows where Black holes blazars blasts of deadly radiation from nearby super novae stars burned out hulks of stars super dense neutron stars rocks small or incredibly large and a host of other things none of them welcome visitors IN THIS INCREDIBLE SWEEPING SAGA across thousands of years and hundreds of light years we come face to face with our fears and deep prejudices It is here in SEEDS OF MEMORY that we get an idea of what it means to be HUMAN and what HUMAN really means It is here in SEEDS OF MEMORY that we are confronted with the need to know colliding head on with reality Are we HOMO SAPIENS SAPIENS truly the only form that humans can take and is our history the only history Might there not be others or others created out of the very stuff of life who are after all our brothers and sisters kith and kin In this story we find that the lines that divide have indistinct fuzzy edges and that we are the ones who make those divisions Here we discover humanity at its magnificent best its seething worst and everything imaginable between while we make an uncertain attempt to reunite two peoples separated by time and space and other things One of those unwelcome visitors has arrived and we are pitifully unprepared This is a speculative look into a far flung future disaster that could actually happen and well might someday and how the human species reacts to it It could even be said that it is a look at a future history a history we might not be able to survive

Learning and Memory Isidore Gormezano, Edward A. Wasserman, 2013-02-01 This volume presents the views and findings of behaviorally and biologically oriented investigators invited to participate in The University of Iowa's biennial learning and memory symposium While chapters vary in their scope and depth of coverage they are all amply referenced so that researchers teachers and students can obtain background information appropriate to their respective needs What I Remember Paul C. Valentine, 2011-11-18 THIS IS THE STORY OF ONE MAN'S MEMORY of the past 80 years of our history in the 20th and beginning of the 21st century Recollections of the ending of the Great Depression World War II Growing up in Elgin Illinois Elgin High School College years at DePauw University Miami University of Ohio Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Stanford Law School the Air Force Polio in the 50s Washington D C in the Kennedy Years Law practice in Palo Alto Vietnam protests Turmoil on the Stanford Campus The Creative Initiative Foundation Nuclear power and alternative energy Beyond War His 57 year marriage to Nancy Elizabeth Hodge of Niles Ohio their family of three children and seven grandchildren and their living in retirement at The Sequoias in Portola Valley California This is a story of ordinary people who found meaning in their lives in extraordinary times Sarah and the Garden Tricia Hayes, 2025-04-18 Why did Sarah laugh God asks but no one answers Is there even an answer to such a question Sarah's story is not simple There is no bitter old woman who laughs at God because she does not believe on that day God came to her tent to tell her she would have a child Her story begins in the beginning all the way back in the garden where God created unity and where humanity destroyed it in the matter of the tree Sarah's story is about that destruction but it is also about how God hears her and about how God insists she is essential to the Eden work God is doing in the world This thoughtful study looks at Sarah with fresh eyes Beautiful writing and artistic images bring Sarah out of the shadows traditional interpretation has hidden her within to reveal green garden newness born of dust and desolation Complete Poems A. M. Klein, 1990-01-01 This collection includes all Klein's poetry both original works and translations from Hebrew Yiddish Aramaic and Latin Many of them coming from all periods of his careers have never been published In the Mirror of Memory Janet Gyatso, 1992-01-01 This book studies the diverse array of species of memory in Buddhism Contributors focus on a particular school group of texts terms or practices and identify a considerable range of types of mnemonic faculties in Buddhism Included are discussions of Buddhist teaching meditation visualization prayer commemoration of the Buddha dharma practice the use of mnemonic lists to condense lengthy scriptures and the purported recollection of infinite previous lives that immediately preceded Sakya Muni's attainment of Buddhahood Even enlightened awareness itself is said by some Buddhist schools to consist in a mnemonic engagement with reality as such The authors explore Buddhist views on mundane acts of memory such as recognizing reminding memorizing and storing data as well as special types of memory that are cultivated in religious practice One of the most striking discoveries is that perception is intimately related to certain types of memory Several essays investigate if and if so how meditative mindfulness and recollection of the past both of which can be designated by the term smṛti are connected within the Buddhist tradition The question of whether recollection of the past can be explained without violating the foundational Buddhist notions of radical impermanence and no self is addressed by several of the contributing scholars Among the primary sources for the studies in this volume are the northern and southern Abhidharma literature the Māhāvastu and Mahāyāna-sūtras works of the Buddhist logicians Yogācāra materials the Tibetan Great Perfection Rdzogschen tradition and Indian and Tibetan commentarial works Affinities of Buddhist views on memory with those found in Western phenomenology semiology psychology and history of religions are considered as well Remembering India's Villages Santosh K. Singh, 2023-07-21 In the time of agrarian crisis and movement Remembering India's Villages centralises the rural India examining its stubborn past and dynamic present Departing from the myth of little republics it sees villages in cinema development discourses and debates among the founders of modern India like Gandhi Nehru Tagore and Ambedkar Empirical research multidisciplinary perspective and cross cultural insights are useful aids in this book toward understanding the reality of the rural that comprises structural anomalies and social possibilities The book remembers India

s villages under the trope of reconstitution rather than disappearance The book adds to the renewed interest in village studies rural sociology development studies and intellectual history This book is co published with Aakar Books Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan and Bhutan The Second Scroll Abraham Moses Klein,2000-01-01 First published in 1951 The Second Scroll is the only novel by A M Klein a complex work rich with biblical talmudic kabbalistic and literary allusions This scholarly edition annotates and restores the text to Klein s original vision

Adventures in Memory Hilde Østby,Ylva Østby,2018-10-09 A novelist and a neuroscientist uncover the secrets of human memory What makes us remember Why do we forget And what exactly is a memory With playfulness and intelligence Adventures in Memory answers these questions and more offering an illuminating look at one of our most fascinating faculties The authors two Norwegian sisters one a neuropsychologist and the other an acclaimed writer skillfully interweave history research and exceptional personal stories taking readers on a captivating exploration of the evolving understanding of the science of memory from the Renaissance discovery of the hippocampus named after the seahorse it resembles up to the present day Mixing metaphor with meta analysis they embark on an incredible journey diving for seahorses for a memory experiment in Oslo fjord racing taxis through London and time traveling to the future to reveal thought provoking insights into remembering and forgetting Along the way they interview experts of all stripes from the world s top neuroscientists to famous novelists to help explain how memory works why it sometimes fails and what we can do to improve it Filled with cutting edge research and nimble storytelling the result is a charming and memorable adventure through human memory

Moral Agency in Eastern and Western Thought Jonathan Jacobs,Heinz-Dieter Meyer,2024-07-30 This volume explores how individuals use moral agency to craft the moral dispositions and moral capabilities needed for living well lived lives It draws on Eastern and Western philosophical and ethical traditions to formulate and address key issues concerning character development and moral agency In both Eastern and Western traditions the complexities of shaping an individual s moral agency focus on sustained processes of inner self cultivation The chapters in this volume highlight the ways in which one is to manage and direct one s desires and aspirations and what is to count as the source of guidance for a well lived life They engage with key figures and traditions in the history of Eastern and Western philosophy including Confucian Buddhist and Western sources from Aristotle to Kant The juxtaposition of sources from the different parts of the world highlights striking similarities and significant contrasts and provides rich conceptual resources for further exploration of these issues The volume provides a broader deeper pursuit of central issues of moral psychology and ethics in ways that highlight the inexhaustible resources in these traditions The focus on character is a way to draw together perspectives on ethical life theories of human agency views of fundamental life guiding values and relations between individuals and society and how persons see their place in the world Moral Agency in Eastern and Western Thought will appeal to scholars and advanced students working on virtue ethics moral psychology comparative philosophy and history of philosophy
