Seeds Of Wealth:

Seeds of Wealth Henry Hobhouse, 2012-08-23 Henry Hobhouse was the first to recognise plants as a causal factor in history in his Seeds of Wealth In this new book he examines four plants rubber timber tobacco and the wine grape each of which enormously increased the wealth of those who dealt in them created great new industries and changed the course of history Ancient Rome's monopoly on wine production had huge economic and hygienic importance Without rubber there would have been no development of cars buses and trucks bicycles waterproof clothing or even tennis balls and condoms Tobacco has largely been condemned for its effects on health and its true role in history ignored Tobacco has often been used in place of currency and its growth in Virginia supported a colony that produced much of the talent that made Independence possible Timber shortages led the British Royal Navy to become dependent on American timber The dearth of timber drove English coal mines deep which led to the steam pumps steam engines and ultimately the Industrial Revolution These are fascinating stories the effect of minutiae on the great waves of history You cannot help but admire and enjoy the company of a man who takes such a novel and global view of history Spectator

Seeds of Wealth Henry Hobhouse, 2005 In this collection of four essays Hobhouse focuses on the exploitation of timber tobacco rubber and the wine grape which enormously increased the wealth of those who dealt with them created new industries shaped destinies and changed the course of history
