Seeing And Believing Images Of The Christian Faith:

Seeing and Believing Frank Kacmarcik, Paul J. Philibert, 1995 Five hundred years ago with the invention of movable type a new symbol system was made available to Christians as to all in Europe They hailed it as a means to bring to the literate minority God's word attested in the Scriptures All alike welcomed the printed book as an advance in the diffusion of God's word Some in the burgher class however began to set it in opposition not to God's word proclaimed and commented on in speech but to all non verbal symbols of the unseen Triune God Seeing and Believing Ellen T. Armour, 2023-07-04 Social media platforms are often denounced as bubbles or echo chambers In this view what we see tends to reinforce what we already believe and what we already believe shapes what we see Yet social movements such as Black Lives Matter rely heavily on the widespread dissemination of digital photographs and videos through social media In at least some cases visual images can challenge normative and normalized ways of grasping the world and prompt their viewers to see differently and even bring people together Seeing and Believing marshals religious resources to recast the significance of digital images in the struggle for social justice Ellen T Armour examines what distinguishes digital photography from its analogue predecessor and places the circulation of digital images in the broader context of virtual visual cultures She explores the challenges and opportunities that visually saturated social media landscapes present for users and organizers Despite the power of digital platforms and algorithms possibilities for disruption and resistance emerge from how people engage with these systems Armour offers ways of seeing drawn from Christianity and found in other religious traditions to help us break with entrenched habits and rethink how we engage with the images that grab our attention Developing theological perspectives on the power and peril of photography and technology Seeing and Believing provides suggestions for navigating the new media landscape that can spark what Armour calls photographic insurrection The Bloomsbury Guide to Christian Spirituality Peter Tyler, Richard Woods, 2012-10-25 Introduction to Christian spirituality with scholarly input Each article is by a leading academic and explains the subject matter in an accessible and open fashion Seeing Is Believing Gregory A. Boyd, 2004-04-01 One of the most common problems with Christians in our modern secularized world is that they don't feel the reality of Jesus Sure they believe in him and love him but he somehow doesn't seem to enter their daily lives in a real sense Some might say You ought to pray more Others would advise You ought to witness more While this may be true we don't get closer to God just because we ought to Boyd believes that the way to true spiritual transformation and feeling the presence of God in your life comes from a little R and R rest and reality Boyd encourages readers to stop striving and learn to rest in an experience of Jesus as real The best way to do this he says is through imaginative prayer Experiencing Jesus will teach readers how to use God's gracious gift of creative imagination to know him better and feel his presence in their daily lives The Pursuit of Belief - Christian Classics Collection Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, Martin Luther, Henryk Sienkiewicz, Dante Alighieri, Henry Van Dyke, David Hume, James Allen, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Andrew Murray, John

The Material Image Donald H. Wacome, 2020-09-29 In The Material Image Donald H Wacome sets out to reconcile the Christian faith and contemporary science by embracing rather than evading its naturalistic implications The sciences are our best way to know ourselves and the world we inhabit Wacome argues but this does not make belief in miracles unreasonable The sciences reveal that we are fully material beings the product of unguided natural selection God created human persons for the vocation of sharing in the everlasting Triune life and work but this creation does not involve design The mind is the embodied socially situated brain There is no immaterial soul we are the material image of our transcendent Creator This materialist conception does not preclude the resurrection of the body The freedom that matters for the human creature is compatible with our being governed by the laws of nature Morality and religion are natural merely human legacies of our evolutionary history which God employs in pursuit of fellowship with us Christians can faithfully and enthusiastically welcome the image of human beings given in contemporary science Seeing Is Believing Gregory A.
