Seeking Asylum Intrigue:

Seeking Asylum Mallory Kane, 2005 SAFE HAVEN As one of the Bureau's top criminal profilers it was Eric Baldwin's job to get inside killers' heads. Only this time the crazed shooter who'd taken a beautiful doctor hostage was Eric's brother, the identical twin he'd long thought dead. Being abducted by her own patient was terrifying enough. Now the man who'd just rescued her needed Dr Rachel Harper's help. Assuming his brother's identity to infiltrate a conspiracy inside a mental hospital, Eric Baldwin was about to embark on the most dangerous mission of his life. And as danger fanned the flames of irresistible desire much.

Homicide in the Biblical World Pamela Barmash, 2005 Homicide in the Biblical World analyses the treatment of homicide in the Hebrew Bible and demonstrates that it is directly linked to the unique social structure and religion of ancient Israel. Close parallels between biblical law and ancient Near Eastern law are evident in the laws of the ox that gored and the pregnant woman who is assaulted, but when the total picture of the process by which homicide was adjudicated comes into view, what is most noticeable is how little of it is similar to ancient Near Eastern law. This book reconstructs biblical law from both legal texts and narrative texts and analyses both the law collections and documents from actual legal cases from the ancient Near East.

Systemic and Narrative Work with Unaccompanied Asylum-Seeking Children Ana Draper, Elisa Marcellino, Samantha Thomson, 2024-06-28 Systemic and Narrative Work with Unaccompanied Asylum Seeking Children Stories of Relocation provides a contextualised research-based understanding of how to enhance and support the emotional health and well-being of unaccompanied asylum-seeking children. The framework presented in this book is an innovative intervention that enhances the well-being of children who have experienced trauma by improving the therapeutic abilities for all who support and care for them. This book presents the evidence base for this new systemic and narrative trauma-informed framework of care, creates a wider understanding of working with trauma responses in unaccompanied asylum-seeking children and offers coherence for practitioners wanting to use this approach. The authors provide a physiological view as well as identify embodied aspects of trauma experience and describe a narrative approach developed from a clinical understanding of trauma as well as presenting the words of children who took part in the project. Creating a common multi-disciplinary language, this approach can be used to improve coherence, coordination and excellence within the whole system. This book is essential reading for all practitioners working with unaccompanied asylum-seeking children. It will also be of interest to students and trainees of social work and other mental health disciplines as well as other professionals seeking to understand the needs of this group.

Civil Rights in Wartime Dawinder S. Sidhu, Neha Singh Gohil, 2016-05-23 In the days, months and now years following the events of September 11th 2001, discrimination against the Sikh community in America has escalated sharply due in part to a populace that often confuses Sikhs, compelled by their faith to wear turbans, with the Muslim extremists responsible for the devastating terrorist attacks. Although Sikhs have since mobilized to spread awareness and condemn violence against themselves and Muslims, there has been a conspicuous absence of academic literature to aid scholars and commentators in understanding the effect of the backlash on the Sikh community. This volume provides a unique window onto this particular minority group's experience in an increasingly hostile climate and offers a sharp analysis of the legal battles fought by Sikhs in post 9/11 America. In doing so it adds a new chapter to the ongoing national story of the difficulties minority groups have faced in protecting their civil liberties in times of war.

Regional Approaches to the Protection of Asylum Seekers Ademola Abass, 2016-04-08. This book presents a comprehensive assessment of regional responses to the crisis in the asylum/refugee system and critically examines how different regions tackle the problem. The chapters consider the fundamental challenges which undermine an effective asylum process, as well as regional difficulties with the various circumstances surrounding asylum seekers. With contributions on Africa, Europe, Latin America, South Asia, and the Middle East, and the Pacific, the collection strives to appreciate what informs each region's approach to the asylum process and asks if there are issues common to every region and if regions can learn from one another The book seeks an understanding of the existing legal regime for the protection of asylum seekers and how regional institutions such as human rights commissions and regional courts enforce and adjudicate the law The volume will be valuable to those interested in international law migration and human rights      Gender in Cross-Cultural Perspective Adrienne E. to mark the stages in the evolution of China's political forms, social organizations, and economic progress that can be traced from the days of the first empire from 221 B.C. until the dynamic changes of the nineteenth century. He believes that a full understanding of modern China depends on a more than perfunctory glance at her past and has tried to provide the general historical context. The author is well aware that thanks to the research of the last fifty years it is now possible and indeed requisite to reach a deeper understanding of China's past.
