Magic In Late Antiquity Pagans Jews And Christians:

Magic in the Roman World Naomi Janowitz, 2001 A lively volume exploring the use and abuse of the word magic in late antique texts

Jews and Christians in Their Graeco-Roman Context Pieter Willem van der Horst, 2006 A collection of essays most of which were published previously Partial contents

Religious Diversity in Late Antiquity David Morton Gwynn, Susanne Bangert, 2010 This volume in the ongoing Late Antique Archaeology series draws on material and textual evidence to explore the diverse religious world of Late Antiquity Subjects include Jews and Samaritans orthodoxy and heresy pilgrimage stylites magic the sacred and the secular

Paul Within Paganism Alexander Chantziantoniou, Paula Fredriksen, Stephen L. Young, 2025-11-04 Leading and rising scholars introduce a burgeoning new approach to the study of Paul which situates the Jewish apostle to gentiles within the wider world of ancient Mediterranean religion

Pagans and Christians in Late Antiquity A.D.(Doug) Lee, 2013-04-15 In this book A D Lee charts the rise to dominance of Christianity in the Roman empire Using translated texts he explains the fortunes of both Pagans and Christians from the upheavals of the 3rd Century to the increasingly tumultuous times of the 5th and 6th centuries The book also examines important themes in Late Antiquity such as the growth of monasticism the emerging power of bishops and the development of pilgrimage and looks at the fate of other significant religious groups including the Jews Zoroastrians and Manichaeans

Jews, Pagans and Christians in the Roman Empire Jan N. Bremmer , 2025-10-13

The Power of Religion in Late Antiquity Andrew Cain, 2016-09-17 Late Antiquity witnessed a dramatic recalibration in the economy of power and nowhere was this more pronounced than in the realm of religion The transformations that occurred in this pivotal era moved the ancient world into the Middle Ages and forever changed the way that religion was practiced The twenty eight studies in this volume explore this shift using evidence ranging from Latin poetic texts to Syriac letter collections to the iconography of Roman churches and Merovingian mortuary goods They range in chronology from the late third through the early seventh centuries AD and apply varied theories and approaches All converge around the notion that religion is fundamentally a discourse of power and that power in Late Antiquity was especially charged with the force of religion The articles are divided into eight sections which examine the power of religion in literature theurgical power over the divine emperors and the deployment of religious power limitations on the power of the ecclesiastical hierarchy the use of the cross as a symbol of power Rome and its transformation as a center of power the power of religion in the barbarian west and religious power in the communities of the east This kaleidoscope of perspectives creates a richly illuminating volume that add a new social and political dimension to current debates about religion in Late Antiquity

Pagans and Christians in Late Antique Rome Michele Renee Salzman, Marianne Sághy, Rita Lizzi Testa, 2016 This book sheds new light on the religious and consequently social changes taking place in late antique Rome The essays in this volume argue that the once dominant notion of pagan Christian religious conflict cannot fully explain the texts and artifacts as well as the social religious and political realities of late antique Rome

Together the essays demonstrate that the fourth century city was a more fluid vibrant and complex place than was previously thought Competition between diverse groups in Roman society be it pagans with Christians Christians with Christians or pagans with pagans did create tensions and hostility but it also allowed for coexistence and reduced the likelihood of overt violent physical conflict Competition and coexistence along with conflict emerge as still central paradigms for those who seek to understand the transformations of Rome from the age of Constantine through the early fifth century

The Formation of Islam Jonathan P. Berkey, 2003 Jonathan Berkey's 2003 book surveys the religious history of the peoples of the Near East from roughly 600 to 1800 CE The opening chapter examines the religious scene in the Near East in late antiquity and the religious traditions which preceded Islam Subsequent chapters investigate Islam's first century and the beginnings of its own traditions the classical period from the accession of the Abbasids to the rise of the Buyid amirs and thereafter the emergence of new forms of Islam in the middle period Throughout close attention is paid to the experiences of Jews and Christians as well as Muslims The book stresses that Islam did not appear all at once but emerged slowly as part of a prolonged process whereby it was differentiated from other religious traditions and indeed that much that we take as characteristic of Islam is in fact the product of the medieval period
