Locates the origins of the mass audience and the emergence of everyday moviegoing in the culture of cities Reel Time Robert Morris Seiler, Tamara Palmer Seiler, 2013 In this authoritative work Seiler and Seiler argue that the establishment and development of moviegoing and movie exhibition in Prairie Canada is best understood in the context of changing late nineteenth century and early twentieth century social economic and technological developments From the first entrepreneurs who attempted to lure customers into movie exhibition halls to the digital revolution and its impact on moviegoing Reel Time highlights the pivotal role of amusement venues in shaping the leisure activities of working and middle class people across North America As marketing efforts the lavish interiors of the movie palace and the romantic view of the local movie theatre concealed a competitive environment in which producers exhibitors and distributors tried to monopolize the industry and drive their rivals out of business The pitched battles and power struggles between national movie theatre chains took place at the same time that movie exhibitors launched campaigns to reassure moviegoers that theatres were no longer the unclean and immoral places of amusement of yesteryear Under the leadership of impresarios the movie theatre rose up from these attacks to become an important social and cultural centre one deemed suitable for women and children An innovative examination of moviegoing as a social practice and movie exhibition as a commercial enterprise Reel Time depicts how the industry shaped the development of the Canadian Prairie West and propelled the region into the modern era Slow Burn Summer Josie Silver, 2025-06-10 A talent agent hires an actress to play the part of novelist on a book tour for his agency's publicity shy client in this delightful rom com from the 1 New York Times bestselling author of the Reese's Book Club Pick One Day in December She's playing the part of romance author but has she found her own real life love story Talent agent Charlie Francisco has three problems a divorce that ended his screenwriting career a business he never planned to inherit and a take your breath away romance novel whose author wants nothing to do with its publication The book is a surefire hit if only his agency can find someone to play author on its summer book tour Enter Kate Elliott a former soap actress who's miraculously right for the part at the very moment her life seems to be going all wrong Kate is still recovering from her own divorce and Charlie's job offer is a lifeline She agrees to the pretense for all interviews signings and appearances surrounding the novel's publication But she can't know who really wrote the remarkable story the one so beautiful it's made her believe in love again When Kate and Charlie meet they're all friction and sparks the one thing they have in common is they're determined to play their respective parts But as the summer heat ups and the lies get bigger and
