Cultivating Sacred Space Elizabeth Murray,1997 Linda Greenlaw hadn't been blue water fishing for ten years since the great events chronicled in The Perfect Storm and The Hungry Ocean when an old friend offered her the captaincy on his boat Seahawk for a season of swordfishing She took the bait of course and thus opened a new chapter in a life that had already seen enough adventure for three lifetimes The Seahawk turns out to be the rustiest of buckets with sprung busted and ancient equipment guaranteed to fail at any critical moment Life is never dull out on the Grand Banks and no one is better at capturing the flavor and details of the wild ride that is swordfishing from the technical complexities of longline fishing and the nuances of reading the weather and waves to the sheer beauty of the open water The trip is full of surprises a bit harder and saltier than I had hoped for but none more unexpected than when the boat's lines inadvertently drift across the Canadian border and she lands in jail Seaworthy is about nature human and other about learning what you can control and what you do when fate takes matters out of your control It's about how a middle aged woman who sets a high bar for herself copes with challenge and change and frustration about the struggle to succeed or fail on your own terms and above all about learning how to find your true self when you're caught between land and sea Pilgrimage Linda Kay Davidson,David M.

Gitlitz,2002-11-17 Nationalistic meccas shrines to popular culture and sacred traditions for the world's religions from Animism to Zoroastrianism are all examined in two accessible and comprehensive volumes Pilgrimage is a comprehensive compendium of the basic facts on Pilgrimage from ancient times to the 21st century Illustrated with maps and photographs that enrich the reader's journey this authoritative volume explores sites people activities rites terminology and other matters related to pilgrimage such as economics tourism and disease Encompassing all major and minor world religions from ancient cults to modern faiths this work covers both religious and secular pilgrimage sites Compiled by experts who have authored numerous books on pilgrimage and are pilgrims in their own right the entries will appeal to students scholars and general readers Subjectivities, Identities, and Education after Neoliberalism Abraham P. DeLeon,2019-03-21 In this book DeLeon presents a critique of neoliberalism and present times through a metaphor of social collapse and considers what remains once the dust has settled for a different kind of person to emerge Engaging a variety of social political and educational theories along with pop culture and literature DeLeon positions humanity at the edges of collapse and what will emerge after the fall Engaging academic and fictional alternatives he imagines future possibilities through a new kind of person that rises from the rubble Questioning the foundations of empiricism standardization and reproducible results that reject new forms of social and political projects from materializing DeLeon discusses the potentials of the imagination and the ways in which it can produce alternative possibilities for our collective future when unleashed and combined with fictional narratives Moving across multiple intellectual philosophical artistic and historical traditions he constructs a radical interdisciplinary vision that challenges us to think about transforming our collective future s one in which we construct a new kind of person ready to tackle the challenges of a potentially liberatory future and what this might entail
