Magical Body Power Fame And Meaning In A Melanesian Society:

The Magical Body Richard Eves, 2014-01-09 An intriguing exploration of the role and significance of the body in the world of a Pacific Islands People the Lelet of New Ireland Papua New Guinea In vivid ethnographic detail the monograph captures the fluidity and complexity of Lelet conceptions of corporeality and their significance to identity as they encounter the influences of modernity in the form of colonialism Christianity and cash cropping The author examines the importance of the body to constructions of identity and difference and its role in the constitution of place and space The book provides a richly detailed ethnographic study of magical belief and the body whilst paying particular attention to the polyvalent meanings of bodily images and metaphors as they are used in numerous contexts of magic Landscapes of Relations and Belonging

Astrid Anderson, 2011-04-01 Wogeo Island is well known to anthropologists of Papua New Guinea through the work of Ian Hogbin Based on substantial fieldwork the author builds on and expands previous research by showing how Wogeos establish and maintain social relationships and identities connected to place and movement in the physical landscape This innovative study demonstrates how Wogeo worldviews and social organization can be described in relation to terms of movements flows and placements in the landscape while in turn the landscape is constituted and made meaningful through people's activities and buildings The author not only addresses some of the key issues in contemporary anthropology concerning place gender kinship knowledge and power but also fills an important gap in Melanesian ethnography The Scope of Anthropology

Laurent Dousset, Serge Tcherkézoff, 2012-04-01 Some of the most prominent social and cultural anthropologists have come together in this volume to discuss Maurice Godelier's work They explore and revisit some of the highly complex practices and structures social scientists encounter in their fieldwork From the nature culture debate to the fabrication of hereditary political systems from transforming gender relations to the problems of the Christianization of indigenous peoples these chapters demonstrate both the diversity of anthropological topics and the opportunity for constructive dialogue around shared methodological and theoretical models The Palgrave Handbook of Anthropological Ritual Studies Pamela J.

Stewart, Andrew J. Strathern, 2021-08-24 Ritual Studies have achieved prominence since the 1980s when interest in ritual as an object of inquiry was established bridging over a number of humanities and social science disciplines Both connected with religious studies and independent of it overlapping with social and cultural anthropology but also with history related to science and health practices and ranging across the life course to education Ritual Studies has come to encompass studies of change and dynamism in social life Rituals are determinate in form but not static They enunciate distinctive social values within specific contexts that frame them and they relate to the wider concerns and issues of their practitioners Due to this broad and wide ranging scope it is often difficult to find a single resource on Ritual Studies and even more so to find one which moves beyond the beginnings of anthropological theorizing to grapple with the present day contexts of ritual Bringing together recent ethnographies of ritual practice and ritualization from across the globe this Handbook provides case study of ritual in the light of Emotion and Cognition Identity Religious Power Performance and Literature Ecology and Ecological Disaster Media and other topics While each chapter provides a deep ethnography of a specific society ritual or ritualized practice each also engages with current theoretical and substantive approaches to the relevant topic The scholars collected here provide original synoptic and indicative pieces as guideposts and pathways through the complex varied and cross disciplinary and vast landscape of scholarship that constitutes Ritual Studies today and points to developments in the future

Unstructuring Chinese Society is a culmination of long term field work and archival research that challenges existing theories of social organisation and cultural change The book makes new sense of historical contradictions political conflicts and deep seated social transformations that have underlined the experience of colonial rule and the practices of local institutions in Hong Kong over the past century By focusing on the ongoing interactions of discourse practices and global local relations in cultural terms Unstructuring Chinese Society puts forth a fresh perspective in the field of historical anthropology while addressing ongoing critical concerns in postcolonial theory and our understanding of tradition and modernity
