enchanted places that are near to your home and hearth Ivo Dominguez Jr author of Practical Astrology for Witches and Pagans Natalie Zaman expertly documents all things curious ancient and otherwise magical in this impressive collection I can't wait for the rest of the series Raven Digitalis author of Esoteric Empathy and Goth Craft Museums as Ritual Sites Lieke Wijnia, James S. Bielo, 2024-10-14 Museums as Ritual Sites critically examines the assumption that museums inherently function as ritual sites and in turn are poised to exert influence on cultural and societal change Bringing together a diverse international group of interdisciplinary scholars and curators the volume celebrates and critically engages with Carol Duncan's seminal work Civilizing Rituals Presenting a wide ranging exploration of how museums function as liminal zones in broader societal contexts the book discusses major topics identified as functioning at the heart of the above mentioned paradigm shift diversity and inclusion consumption religion and tradition These topics are studied through the lens of their ritual implications in museum practice Presenting case studies on ethnographic art history community and memorial practices in museums the book reflects the diversity of the contemporary international museum field As such the volume presents a critical and updated revision of the ritual perspective on museums both as it was presented by Duncan and as it has since been developed in the field of museum studies Museums as Ritual Sites will be essential reading for academics and students working in museum studies heritage studies cultural anthropology religious studies and ritual studies Museums as Ritual Sites will also be of interest to those working across the humanities and social sciences who are interested in the intersection of museums or archives with indigeneity and decolonization Managing the Magic of Old Places Jeremy Wells, 2025-10-14 From 1849 to the early 1980s the development of US historic preservation policy was shaped by fewer than one hundred elite White men from Europe and America This orthodox preservation doctrine has too long silenced the vibrant experiential relationships between everyday people and their heritage Managing the Magic of Old Places Crafting Public Policies for People Centered Historic Preservation offers a radical rethinking of how historic preservation is approached in the United States Author Jeremy C Wells argues for a revolutionary shift in federal preservation policy one that embraces community based participatory practice and draws from environmental psychology to tap into the intangible emotional connections people have with old places Wells highlights the experiential values that laypeople often ascribe to historic environments which are frequently dismissed by expert driven policies He contends that if historic preservation policy continues to ignore these aspects the field will lose relevance as the gap between professionals and the public widens Drawing from interdisciplinary research in the social sciences particularly phenomenology and environmental psychology Wells's vision of public preservation policy centers the lived experiences of communities reinvigorating the field and ensuring that the preservation of historic places resonates with a wider more inclusive audience Wells positions his work within the growing field of critical heritage studies yet his focus on the psychological and emotional aspects of preservation distinguishes it as a unique contribution By placing the needs and experiences of the public at the heart of preservation efforts Wells critiques the historical foundations of US preservation policy while offering a bold agenda for reform The Archaeology of Magic C. Riley Augé, 2020-04-15 In this book C Riley Aug provides a trailblazing archaeological study of magical practice and its relationship to gender in the Anglo American culture of colonial New England The Harry Potter Generation Emily Lauer, Balaka Basu, 2019-04-10 The generation of readers most heavily impacted by J K Rowling s Harry Potter series those who grew up alongside the boy who lived have come of age They are poised to become teachers parents critics and writers and many of their views and choices will be influenced by the literary revolution in which they were immersed This collection of new essays explores the many different ways in which Harry Potter has shaped this generation s views on everything from politics to identity to pedagogical spaces online It seeks to determine how the books have affected fans understanding of their place in the world and their capacity to create it anew China's Sacred Sites Shun-xun Nan, Beverly Foit-Albert, 2007 Examines how Chinese mountainscape culture merges architecture and nature by documenting over 50 ancient architectural and environmental sites and featuring over 250 photographs and 100 architectural drawings Provides overview of traditional Chinese philosophies of Buddhism Taoism and Confucianism and explains the historical roots of feng shui yin and yang and chi Provided by publisher Magic Born: The Complete Series Odette C.
