Maharashtras Contribution To Music:

Maharashtra's Contribution to Music Vāmana Harī Deśapāṇḍe, 1972 Hindustani Music in the 20th Century W. van der Meer, 2012-12-06 AIM In spite of a reasonably extensive literature in English and Indian vernaculars there are extremely few books on Indian music that can be considered of a scientific standard I found when I took up an interest in Indian music in 1967 that even protracted reading of the studies in English was not conducive to an understanding of the principles of performance Most of my study and research have been devoted to the gradual refinement of this very understanding In the course of time it also became obvious that different scholars and different musicians held divergent views on many basic concepts of Indian music Therefore one of my tasks was to assess the degree of variability in Indian music As a corollary I wanted to know how this variability could manifest itself as change in a relatively short and well documented period It is often assumed that traditional cultures as e g in India are rather inert and that the art forms hardly ever change This study proves the contrary Indian music has a strong vitality If we examine the different treatises through the centuries this vitality would appear to be a basic characteristic I felt that at least an effort to discover the roots of such change would be valuable as a contribution to the study of art history and possibly to the sociology of culture The Life of Music in North India Daniel M. Neuman, 1990-03-15 Daniel M Neuman offers an account of North Indian Hindustani music culture and the changing social context of which it is part as expressed in the thoughts and actions of its professional musicians Drawing primarily from fieldwork performed in Delhi in 1969 71 from interviewing musicians learning and performing on the Indian fiddle and speaking with music connoisseurs Neuman examines the cultural and social matrix in which Hindustani music is nurtured listened and attended to cultivated and consumed in contemporary India Through his interpretation of the impact that modern media educational institutions and public performances exert on the music and musicians Neuman highlights the drama of a great musical tradition engaging a changing world and presents the adaptive strategies its practitioners employ to practice their art His work has gained the distinction of introducing a new approach to research on Indian music and appears in this edition with a new preface by the author 'Raas' : The Mandal Raas of Mulher Province of Maharashtra Meghana Ashtaputre, 2021-08-14 The followers of Ramanuj Sampradaya in Mulher province worship Lord Shri Krishna It has its historic importance The followers of this sect traditionally celebrate Raas Leela of lord Shri Krishna at every Sharad Poonam This tradition is 350 years old The Raas Leela of Mulher is equally important as the Raas Leela of Brindavan Lots of followers from the interior parts of Gujarat Karnataka and Maharashtra participate in the yearly Raas Leela celebration They come to worship Lord Shri Krishna among them some thank the Lord for their fulfilled wishes and others pray to God to fulfill their wishes They have a feeling of love affection and equality about all the religions in their hearts They all are lost in themselves their souls are connected to the Lord They are so engrossed in singing Bhajans that they forget hunger thirst etc In this Raas Leela one local child enacts Shri Krishna and others enact as his Gopis All night the followers sing Bhajans under the Chakra The Padas of Raas Leela are sung by them A total of 105 Padaas are sung They are composed in various Raagas Traditional as well as the Raagas which are scarcely known We can easily make out that those Raagas are different from the present ones In this book there is an humble effort to give the detailed information about the history of raas leela the present situation of Raas leela a live description Raas padaas with notation pt Bhatkhande notation system actual meaning of each pada a study of the raagas in which the padas are composed and an effort to know the actual face or structure of the raagas in medieval period and in modern period Musicophilia in Mumbai Tejaswini Niranjana, 2020-02-28 In Musicophilia in Mumbai Tejaswini Niranjana traces the place of Hindustani classical music in Mumbai throughout the long twentieth century as the city moved from being a seat of British colonial power to a vibrant postcolonial metropolis Drawing on historical archives newspapers oral histories and interviews with musicians critics students and instrument makers as well as her own personal experiences as a student of Hindustani classical music Niranjana shows how the widespread love of music throughout the city created a culture of collective listening that brought together people of diverse social and linguistic backgrounds This culture produced modern subjects Niranjana calls musicophiliacs whose subjectivity was grounded in a social rather than an individualistic context By attending concerts learning instruments and performing at home and in various urban environments musicophiliacs embodied forms of modernity that were distinct from those found in the West In tracing the relationship between musical practices and the formation of the social subject Niranjana opens up new ways to think about urbanity subjectivity culture and multiple modernities GK Maharashtra NOTES Mocktime Publication, GK Maharashtra NOTES Maharashtra GK notes PDF Maharashtra general knowledge Maharashtra current affairs GK Maharashtra PSC notes Maharashtra static GK Maharashtra geography history GK GK for Maharashtra exams Maharashtra quiz questions Maharashtra study notes GK notes Maharashtra state The Garland Encyclopedia of World Music: South Asia : the Indian subcontinent Bruno Nettl, Alison Arnold, Ruth M.
