Joint Economic Committee, 1989 Europe 1992 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Ways and Means. Subcommittee on Trade, 1989 The European Economy Christopher M. Dent, 2002-09-11 The shape of the world economy is changing Globalisation and regionalism have led to the development of powerful but interdependent economic blocs Much economic potential has shifted from the Atlantic to the Pacific area In view of this The European Economy argues that economists need a broader worldwide base of information if these processes and their effect on Europe are to be fully understood Topics discussed include Europe s experience of the growing trend of regionalism the single market plans for economic union EU enlargement Europe s triad rivals EU external trade and trade relations technology and innovation environmental issues This fresh approach highlights the issues which will challenge European countries into the twenty first century The Global Market John A. Quelch, Rohit Deshpande, 2004-05-18 The twin forces of ideological change and the technology revolution make globalization the single most important issue facing executives today But many companies who have developed a presence in the global market now face the challenges inherent in creating a multinational presence with the demands of the unglobal consumer who does not have a one size fits all need Here HBS Professors John Quelch and Deshpande bring together 13 Harvard Business School professors to discuss these and other problems and benefits encountered by executives in global markets Topics to be discussed include operating costs of global advertising and marketing services global product standards managing global supply chains global account management global brands global knowledge sharing and performance drivers managing global customers and social marketing for global economic development Conversations with Marketing Masters Laura Mazur, Louella Miles, 2009-08-11 Conversations with Marketing Masters offers new insights by gathering the collected wisdom of the most influential marketing thinkers of our age each of whom has given a structured interview Covering a wide range of issues and illustrating concepts with cases of success and failure these seminal dialogues offer a rare look at what made each master great and a glimpse of the marketing future The Marketing Masters featured are Philip Kotler David Aaker Jean Claude Larreche Regis McKenna Don Peppers John Quelch Al Ries Martha Rogers Don Schultz Patricia Seybold Jack Trout and Lester Wunderman The conversations are free flowing dialogues in which each personality is allowed to shine through The European Community after 1992 Silvio Borner, Herbert Grubel, 2016-07-27 The liberalization of trade and factor movements and the adoption of a common currency proposed for the EEC in 1992 have important implications for the rest of the world Nineteen experts from academia different countries and regions and international organizations analyze these implications theoretically and empirically In general the authors expect Europe 1992 to generate positive effects on trade and welfare although concerns are raised over possible inward looking policies by the Community For many small and distant countries the effects are shown likely to be insignificant in any case The European Union Encyclopedia and Directory 1999 Europa Publications,1999 Charts the Union s development from its conception through to the implementation of the Maastricht Treaty and its continuing activities Includes an A Z section of concise definitions and explanations of organizations acronyms and terms The most extensive collection of information available on the European Union The third edition of this definitive reference work has been thoroughly revised and updated to provide the latest information on the EU It charts the Union s development from its conception through to the creation of the single market in 1992 to the implementation of the Maastricht Treaty and its continuing activities Contents include An A Z section of concise definitions and explanations of organizations acronyms and terms plus short articles on the member states A series of introductory articles providing a broader view of the policies and activities of the EU Statistical data for the entire EU on trade employment and industrial production An extensive directory of key names addresses phone and fax numbers e mail and internet addresses for all major European Union institutions and official bodies Details of MEPs their political groups and national parties members of major committees Directorates General and other commission bodies
