Lutheran merchant from the city of Augsburg in the seventeenth century Miller s is a singular story Though he lived through some of the great events of his age he scarcely mentioned them Though he was raised in the standard values of his age he understood and applied them idiosyncratically This is the story of one man s experience and perception based on his memoir and associated documents Yet despite its individual focus the book explores universal institutions of early modern Europe patriarchy hierarchy honor community and confession Absolutism and the Scientific Revolution, 1600-1720 Christopher and Fraternity Laura Branch,2017-05-08 In Faith and Fraternity Laura Branch provides the first sustained comparative analysis of London s livery companies during the Reformation Focussing on the Grocers and the Drapers this book challenges the view that merchants were zealous early Protestants and that the companies to which they belonged adapted to the Reformation by secularising their ethos Rather the rhetoric of Christianity particularly appeals to brotherly love punctuated the language of corporate governance throughout the century and helped the liveries retain a spiritual culture These institutions comprised a spectrum of religious identities yet members managed to coexist relatively peacefully in this way the liveries help us to understand better how the transition from a Catholic to a Protestant society was negotiated Madness in Seventeenth-Century Autobiography K. Hodgkin, 2006-11-28 What did it mean to be mad in seventeenth century England This book uses vivid autobiographical accounts of mental disorder to explore the ways madness was identified and experienced from the inside asking how certain people came to be defined as insane and what we can learn from the accounts they wrote The Coffee Trader David Liss, 2004-02-03 Amsterdam 1659 On the world's first commodities exchange fortunes are won and lost in an instant Miguel Lienzo a sharp witted trader in the city's close knit community of Portuguese Jews knows this only too well Once among the city's most envied merchants Miguel has suddenly lost everything Now impoverished and humiliated living in his younger brother's canal flooded basement Miguel must find a way to restore his wealth and reputation Miguel enters into a partnership with a seductive Dutchwoman who offers him one last chance at success a daring plot to corner the market of an astonishing new commodity called coffee To succeed Miguel must risk everything he values and face a powerful enemy who will stop at nothing to see him ruined Miguel will learn that among Amsterdam's ruthless businessmen betrayal lurks everywhere and even friends hide secret agendas Childhood and Emotion Claudia Jarzebowski, Thomas Max Safley, 2014-01-03 How did children feel in the Middle Ages and early modern times How did adults feel about the children around them This collection addresses these fundamental but rarely asked questions about social and family relations by bringing together two emerging fields within cultural history childhood and emotion and provides avenues through which to approach their shared histories Bringing together a wide range of material and sources such as court records self narratives and educational manuals this collection sheds a new light on the subject The coverage ranges from medieval to eighteenth century Europe and North America and examines Catholic Protestant Puritan and Jewish communities Childhood emerges as a function not of gender or age but rather of social relations Emotions too appear differently in source driven studies in that they derive not from modern assumptions but from real lived experience Featuring contributions from across the globe Childhood and Emotion comes a step closer to portraying emotions as they were thought to be experienced by the historical subjects This book will establish new benchmarks not only for the history of these linked subjects but also for the whole history of social relations Literacy in Everyday Life Jeroen Blaak, 2009 Until recently historians of reading have concentrated on book ownership and trying to map out a history of who read what The reading experience has been a subject more difficult to research As has been pointed out before egodocuments can be valuable sources in this case Following this lead Literacy in Everyday Life focuses upon four early modern Dutch diaries in which readers document their daily life and in which they recount their reading In the analysis other ways in which these four readers communicated are also addressed especially speech and writing This book therefore provides an insight into the possible uses of literacy and the interaction between the printed written and spoken word in the early modern Dutch Republic Family Firms and Merchant Capitalism in Early Modern Europe Thomas Max Safley, 2019-11-21 This fascinating study follows the fortunes of the H chstetter family merchant manufacturers and financiers of Augsburg Germany in the late fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries and sheds light on the economic and social history of failure and resilience in early modern Europe Carefully tracing the chronology of the family s rise fall and transformation it moves from the micro to the macro level making comparisons with other mercantile families of the time to draw conclusions and suggest insights into such issues as social mobility capitalist organization business techniques market practices and economic institutions The result is a microhistory that offers macro conclusions about the lived experience of early capitalism and capitalistic practices This book will be valuable reading for advanced students and researchers of economic financial and business history legal history and early modern European history
