Matrix of Mystery Herbert V. Guenther,1984 Examines the religious teachings of the rDzogs chen tradition of Tibetan Buddhism and relates these teachings to the modern secular view of the nature of reality The Grand Designer:

Reynolds,David Tracy,1992-05-14 Discourse and Practice strives to stretch the boundaries of commonly accepted notions of philosophical discourse in order to introduce comparative considerations It is united by a concern to tease out the philosophical discourse and practices which inhere in seemingly unphilosophical texts

These texts range from ethnographical materials to mythical and fictive narratives and finally to explicitly theoretical traditions. Each author in attending to the details of his or her area study strives to demonstrate the implicit and explicit philosophical agendas at play. The comparative examples offer valuable insights for how discourse can be redefined. One consistent assumption presented here is that the element of practice which has long been posed in opposition to theory must be treated as an integral aspect of the philosophical import of any tradition. Historical traditions covered include East Asia, Papua New Guinea and Tibet as well as the more familiar territory of Western disciplinary fields.

Buddhist-Christian Dialogue in an Age of Science Paul O. Ingram, 2008. Buddhist-Christian dialogue has rarely touched on its interaction with science yet its importance has immense implications. Buddhist-Christian Dialogue in an Age of Science offers a fresh and exciting view on the ideas, themes and people engaged in the three-way dialogue between Christianity, Buddhism and the natural sciences. Ingram's comprehensive yet accessible scholarship is uniquely solid in both religion and science and has the gift of making complex theories understandable. Providing these three different perspectives will be useful for anyone interested in the relationship between religion and science.

Effortless Spontaneity: The Dzogchen Commentaries by Nubchen Sangye Yeshe Dylan Esler, 2023-03-13. The notion of effortlessness is central to the self-understanding of the Tibetan contemplative tradition known as Dzogchen. This book explores this key notion from a variety of perspectives, highlighting the distinctive role it plays in the Dzogchen approach's doctrinal architecture and meditative programme. The book's focus is on the early development of the Dzogchen tradition, especially as codified in a set of hitherto unstudied commentaries by the 10th-century scholar and meditation master Nubchen Sangye Yeshe. A full annotated translation of the commentaries is provided along with an edition of the Tibetan texts on facing pages.

Yogacara Texts: Indo-Tibetan Sources of Dzogchen Mahamudra Rodney Devenish, 2013-09-24. The Yogacara Doctrine teaches one fundamental truth, namely that all beings are Buddha, sattva, Buddha, evam, or in other words, all beings are aspects of one all-embracing absolute awareness. Were they but to know it, this book sets a context for the study and meditation on ten pivotal texts of Yogacara. The source texts translated from a practice perspective derive from the Indo-Tibetan mahasiddha tradition and are presented with an ecumenical approach. As this collection of pithy Yogacara works will readily prove to the reader, the ancient Practice Tradition of the Yogin rnal bhyor pa i sgrub brgyud is based on a clearly active realization of the essential nature of mind and consciousness gained through years of intensive examination and reflection. Yogacara approach advocates a dynamic form of meditation that is neither suppressive nor lethargic. The guide to this attainment, the mechanism that sharpens the mind's penetrative and illuminative qualities, is metaphysical inquiry.

On the Nature of Consciousness Harry T. Hunt, 1995-01-01. Harry Hunt begins by reviewing the renewed interest in ordinary consciousness and in altered and transpersonal states of consciousness. He then presents competing views of consciousness in cognition, neurophysiology and animal psychology.

developing a view of perceptual awareness as the core of consciousness potentially shared across species
