Paiz, 2022-12-06 The past decades have borne witness to the United Farm Workers UFW tenacious hold on the country's imagination Since 2008 the UFW has lent its rallying cry to a presidential campaign and been the subject of no less than nine books two documentaries and one motion picture Yet the full story of the women men and children who powered this social movement has not yet been told Based on more than 200 hours of original oral history interviews conducted with Coachella Valley residents who participated in the UFW and Chicana/o movements as well as previously unused oral history collections of Filipino farm workers bracero workers and UFW volunteers throughout the United States this stirring history spans from the 1960s and 1970s through the union's decline in the early 1980s Christian O Paiz refocuses attention on the struggle inherent in organizing a particularly vulnerable labor force especially during a period that saw the hollowing out of virtually all of the country's most powerful labor unions He emphasizes that telling this history requires us to wrestle with the radical contingency of rank and file agency an agency that often overflowed the boundaries of individual intentions By drawing on the voices of ordinary farmworkers and volunteers Paiz reveals that the sometimes heroic sometimes tragic story of the UFW movement is less about individual leaders and more the result of a collision between the larger anti union currents of the era and the aspirations of the rank and file The Dialogues of Plato Benjamin Jowett,2024-03-27 Reprint of the original first published in 1875 The Utopia Reader Gregory Claeys,Lyman Tower Sargent,1999-11 Child molesting priests embezzled church treasures philandering ministers and rabbis even church endorsed pyramid schemes that defraud gullible parishioners of millions of dollars for the past decade clergy misconduct has seemed continually to be in the news Is there something about religious organizations that fosters such misbehavior Bad Pastors presents a range of new perspectives and solidly grounded data on pastoral abuse investigating sexual misconduct financial improprieties and political and personal abuse of authority Rather than focusing on individuals who misbehave the volume investigates whether the foundation for clergy malfeasance is inherent in religious organizations themselves stemming from hierarchies of power in which trusted leaders have the ability to define reality control behavior and even offer or withhold the promise of immortality Arguing that such phenomena arise out of organizational structures the contributors do not focus on one particular religion but rather treat these incidents from an interfaith perspective Bad Pastors moves beyond individual case studies to consider a broad range of issues surrounding clergy misconduct from violence against women to the role of charisma and abuse of power in new religious movements Highlighting similarities between other forms of abuse such as domestic violence the volume helps us to conceptualize and understand clergy misconduct in new ways Reports of the Committee of the Whole Board of Aldermen on the Care and Management of the Public Institutions Boston (Mass.). Board of Aldermen,1894 Can we live better? 7 classic utopias Plato,Thomas More,Tommaso Campanella,Francis Bacon,Edward Bellamy,William Morris,Samuel Butler,2021-01-08 Can we live better 7 classic utopias is a collection of the most famous classical works on the topic of an ideal society For thousands of years human beings have dreamt of perfect worlds worlds free of conflict hunger and unhappiness But can these worlds ever exist in reality Many thinkers and authors have sought an answer to this question Utopia is a perfect paradise that doesn't exist but which we all dream of anyway Author Thomas More actually created the noun in one of his books to describe an imaginary island where all systems political social and legal are perfect and operate harmoniously The collection includes works by Plato Thomas More Tommaso Campanella Francis Bacon Edward Bellamy William Morris Samuel Butler Contents Plato The Republic Thomas More Utopia Tommaso Campanella The City of The Sun Frances Bacon The New Atlantis Edward Bellamy Looking Backwards from 2000 to 1887 William Morris News from Nowhere Samuel Butler Erewhon
