Matthew Mark:

Redating Matthew, Mark and Luke John Wenham, 2020-07-20 This groundbreaking study poses a solution to what one scholar has called one of the most difficult research problems in the history of ideas the Synoptic problem The phenomenon and mystery of three similar but different Synoptic Gospels has for centuries challenged some of the best minds of academia and the church How can we explain the differences and similarities among Matthew Mark and Luke Which Gospel was written first To what extent did the Evangelists depend on oral tradition written sources or each other John Wenham courageously opposes the reigning two document theory that Mark was the first Gospel with Matthew and Luke independently using Mark and a lost source of sayings of Jesus labeled Q Through careful argument and analysis he seeks to defend an alternative theory that satisfactorily accounts for what he argues is some degree of structural dependence but nevertheless a surprising degree of verbal independence among the Synoptics This brave new revisioning of the writing of the Synoptics redates Matthew Mark and Luke prior to A D 55 Insightful and provocative Redating Matthew Mark and Luke offers a fresh look at a hard problem as well as an interesting perspective on the inner workings of the early church It is a book to be reckoned with and sure to stir up scholarly controversy

Matthew's Bible M. J. J. Menken, 2004 What type of Old Testament text did Matthew use as editor of his Gospel On the one hand the editorially inserted fulfilment quotations with their peculiar textual form may be expected to represent Matthew's biblical text On the other hand the remaining OT quotations are mainly Septuagintal and it is often assumed that Matthew reinforced the Septuagintal character of the quotations which he found in his sources In the first part of this study the fulfilment quotations are examined Their textual form is best explained as a Septuagint text that was revised to make it better agree with the Hebrew and to improve the quality of its Greek the evangelist took these quotations from a continuous text In the second part Matthew's remaining OT quotations are investigated If Matthew borrows quotations from his sources he does not adjust them to the LXX but he simply copies them or edits them in his usual way if he inserts quotations into his sources he makes use of his revised Septuagint On the whole this revised Septuagint seems to have been Matthew's Bible
